

Vertical Loops

Vertical Loops are used extensively where land area is limited. A pair of pipes with a special U-Bend assembly at the bottom are inserted into a bore hole that averages between 185 to 200 feet in depth per ton of equipment.

These are considered ideal for most Outer Banks lots.

Outer Banks Heating & Cooling 252-441-1740 / www.obhc.com