Developing a Skill Set for a Sustainable Future

Wednesday, September 19, 2012
4:00 PM - 6:00 PM

College of The Albemarle, Edenton-Chowan Campus
Registration & Networking Start at 3:00 PM

As more clean energy companies consider Northeastern North Carolina fertile ground for doing business, they will require a well-trained workforce as vital to the success of their business plans. Join NC Sustainable Energy Association (NCSEA) as it presents Developing a Skill Set for the Future: How Clean Energy Companies and Northeastern North Carolina are Working to Ensure a Sustainable Future.

WHY ATTEND

Learn how College of The Albemarle's new programs help meet the needs of clean energy businesses expanding in the Northeast. Find out how you fit into this equation when leaders from NCSEA, the College of the Albemarle and business representatives across the region and state gather for a dynamic discussion. Join us and be a part of the conservation!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- College students studying sustainability
- Workers considering entering the field of renewable energy and energy efficiency
- Businesses desiring to collaborate and network

WHEN & WHERE

Registration and networking start at 3 p.m. The program starts at 4 p.m. at College of The Albemarle, Edenton-Chowan campus, 800 North Oakum St., Edenton, NC.
