

4 SYMPTOMS

OF A SICK DENTAL PRACTICE

You're producing plenty.
But is that enough?

There's more to financial health than just your practice's production – and you may have problems without even knowing it. But they can be fixed.

1 Financial decisions paralyze you.

Stress is avoidable. If every midsize or major purchase stresses you out, that's not something you have to bear alone.

2 Debt is a four-letter word.

Equipment is expensive. But if you're afraid to take out loans, your cash reserves will suffer, and you'll be in a much worse position.

3 Tax time is terrifying.

If you're living in fear of 5-figure tax surprises every year, there's something wrong. Four Quadrants™ can make it stop.
