OmniComm Systems Ranked Among the World's Top 500 Software Companies

Fort Lauderdale, FL, Oct 23, 2012 – OmniComm Systems, Inc. (OTCBB: OMCM), one of the fastest growing companies in the Electronic Data Capture (EDC) marketplace, today announced its inclusion in Software Magazine's "Software 500" ranking of the world's largest software companies in 2012. The annual "Software 500" is a revenue-based ranking of the world's largest software and services suppliers and includes revenue from software licenses, maintenance and support, training, and software-related services and consulting.

"This prestigious recognition is a testament to the innovative and quality products and services that we offer our clients," said Stephen Johnson, President & COO of OmniComm. "It's no secret why OmniComm has been the fastest growing EDC company in the industry over the past 5 years…superior products and services at very competitive prices."

OmniComm Systems, now in its 15th year, provides eClinical software and services to pharmaceutical, biotechnology, medical device, and contract research organizations that conduct life-changing clinical trial research. This announcement comes on the heels of OmniComm's recent inclusion into Florida Trend's "Top 150 Largest Public Companies in Florida" and OmniComm's inclusion into the Deloitte's 2011 "Technology Fast 500™" ranking of the 500 fastest growing technology, media, telecommunications, life sciences and clean technology companies in North America. OmniComm also recently took Bronze for its development and application of innovative clinical data management technology with the TrialMaster® CDISC SDTM Custom Export Utility, at the annual Society for Clinical Data Management's 2012 Data Driven Innovation Awards.
