Veeda Oncology joins OmniComm's CRO Preferred Program and Signs Agreement for First Study

Fort Lauderdale, FL, May 23, 2012 – OmniComm Systems, Inc., one of the fastest growing companies in the Electronic Data Capture (EDC) marketplace, today announced that Veeda Clinical Research Inc., also known as Veeda Oncology®, has joined OmniComm's CRO Preferred Program, and as part of this program has signed an agreement to run their first study; a 27 month, phase I oncology trial. This complex trial will utilize the TrialMaster® EDC suite to manage their data collection, submission, and medical coding needs.

"We specifically selected TrialMaster due to their experience and expertise in conducting Oncology trials," said Sharon Jameson, VP, Global Clinical Operations. "We are also pleased to have OmniComm as a strategic partner and look forward to working with them on mutual projects in the future. "

Veeda Oncology, a Global Oncology CRO capable of handling the rigors of phase I-IV programs, is dedicated to providing comprehensive clinical oncology research services internationally for the pharmaceutical and biotech industries. With offices in the US, Europe, India, and Malaysia, Veeda Oncology is in the unparalleled position to meet both the regional and global needs of sponsors.

"We look forward to working with this highly specialized CRO," said Stephen Johnson, President & Chief Operating Officer of OmniComm Systems. "We have a tremendous amount of Oncology experience and our TrialMaster solution is especially suited for these types of complex studies."

The addition of Veeda Oncology to the CRO Preferred Program brings the membership total to 48 CROs. This program offers CRO members exclusive benefits, such as a dedicated, hosted environment, sales and marketing support and training, all at a fixed, pay-as-you-go price for predictability and dependability. OmniComm understands how CROs do business and we have designed this program to align with how CROs contract with their clients.
