

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OmniComm Systems® Announces 135% YOY Growth in Total Contract Value Through Q3 2014

Fort Lauderdale, FL, November 26, 2014 - OmniComm Systems, Inc., (OmniComm) (OTCQB: OMCM), a global leading provider of clinical data management technology, today announced that Q3 2014 total contract value was up by over 260% from the same period in 2013. Year-over-year total contract value grew over 135%. New clients accounted for over 73% of all new contracts through Q3 2014 and 20% of all contracts had a term life in excess of 30 months. The record contract growth is attributed to premier client wins and the success of TrialMaster® EDC technology, TrialOne® Phase I clinic automation and Promasys® medical research data management solutions.

“OmniComm’s customers are signing longer-term, higher-value commitments because we provide innovation within our business critical and technology solutions that translates into tangible positive economic impact for our clients,” said Cornelis Wit, CEO of OmniComm Systems. “Our continued investments in technology and service delivery are the key factors driving OmniComm’s increased growth from new and existing customers, alike.”

Key 2014 accomplishments include:

- TrialMaster growth continues to exceed the industry growth rate and accounts for over 80% of the total YTD contract value
- Rapid market adoption of the newest release of TrialOne (version 4.3), a browser-based, mobile, clinic automation solution designed for early-phase research that facilitates subject recruitment, source data capture, sample tracking, data management and reporting
- Premier accounts from global top ten pharmaceutical and contract research organizations signed new multi-year contracts
- New marquee medical research centers in Asia and Europe adopt Promasys data management solution
- Launch of OmniCloud® an eClinical cloud platform for an integrated and optimized clinical enterprise
