Dear David:

Thank you for your dynamic presentation during our Menu for Success program on January 30th. The students, faculty, and staff really enjoyed your interactive presentation style and valuable suggestions for making the most of any face-to-face business interaction, especially during the “informal” parts of any interview process that are so vitally important.

Your “interpersonal rules of the road” were a real goldmine of information, and it was great for the students to hear it from a fresh voice and with a fresh perspective. Your great sense of humor and high level of energy made everyone really sit up and listen.

You're a genuine pleasure to work with. I hope to bring you back to campus for other events in the near future, and would be happy to act as a reference for you to other colleges and universities for these types of programs.

Thanks again.
