

Litigation Support

Let us add value to your case!

Over 35 years of experience.

Litigation and business negotiations often involve complex accounting, tax, and financial matters requiring the specialized knowledge of experienced CPAs.

Dennis M. Echelbarger, CPA/CFF/CGMA has the experience, knowledge, and qualifications to provide defendable, accurate, and independent value conclusions. Their specific skills provide litigation support to present in court or to assist in settlement negotiations and other litigation matters. Analyzing data and resolving issues allows them to fully understand your case and provide clarity to reports and conclusions. Dennis's expert testimony experience provides understandable court presentations.

As a member of the Financial Valuation Group, Dennis has access to a nation wide network of experts in valuation and litigation.

The Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF) certification encompasses fundamental and specialized forensic accounting skills applied in a variety of service areas including:

- Assistance with depositions
- Analysis of financial records and documents
- Business dissolutions/business valuation
- Marital dissolutions/asset valuation
- Calculation of damages
 - Lost income and wages due to accidents or work stoppage
 - Due to theft of proprietary information/designs
 - Due to contractual delays or not according to specifications
 - Due to business interruptions
- Preparation for arbitration and/or mediation
- Calculation of embezzlement-related losses
- Determination of tax consequences
- Expert witness testimony
- Fraud investigations
- Insurance fraud
- Professional malpractice
- Rebuttal reports
- Business valuation
- Bankruptcy valuations/issues

(616) 575-3482

www.ehtc.com