Terms and Conditions

1. Main Contract Documents. General agrees to provide a copy of the plans, specifications, and parts of the main contract with the owner that apply to the performance by Contractor of the work under this contract. Contractor agrees to comply with and perform all provisions in the Main Contract that are applicable to Contractor's performance of this contract. The Main Contract documents are incorporated herein as part of this contract. Contractor shall not in any case, be responsible for any assessments of charges required by any government agencies or public or private utilities such as but not limited to assessments for financing or repaying the costs of sewers, storm drains, water service, schools or other public works or properties, or any other utilities or hookup or connection fees, unless specified in this contract.

2. Licensing. Contractor represents it is and shall remain properly licensed under California State Contractors' License Law, and that its Contractors and all sub-Contractors are and will remain so properly licensed to perform all work under this contract.

3. Plans, specifications & quantities. The plans, specifications and this contract are intended to supplement each other but in the case of conflict, the plans shall control the specifications and this contract shall control both. If this contract is based upon unit price, all quantities or amounts mentioned are understood to be approximate and subject to change when actual quantities and amounts are calculated from measurement of the finished job.

4. Payment. Contractor shall submit to General applications for payment as per the payment schedule on page one of this contract. Before any payment is made, Contractor shall provide General with labor and material releases, in proper statutory form and shall release all lien rights for work performed and materials furnished through the date to which the payment applies. Payments for extras will be made at the time stated in the payment schedule on page one of this contract. In any case, General shall pay Contractor, within ten (10) days of receipt from owner, the amount allowed by the owner to the General for work performed by Contractor during the preceding pay period.

5. Changes, alterations and substitutions. Changes to this contract must be made by written change order of Contractor. General may at any time, without voiding this contract, order extra work or make other changes through executing a change order altering, adding to, or deducting from this contract with the contract price being adjusted by accordingly. All parties will negotiate the amount to be added to or subtracted from the contract price. Upon request of General, Contractor shall promptly submit detailed estimates of the cost of any extra work or deletions proposed by Contractor. Contractor warrants that any substitution of equipment, materials, or method proposed shall be of equal or better quality and shall in all cases achieve the performance and cosmetic standards established by the Main Contract, this contract, and any contract documents. Any such change orders are a part of this contract and are incorporated herein and shall be executed under the conditions set forth in this contract.

6. Permits, compliance and inspections. Contractor will apply for and obtain any special building permits required for Contractor's work and the expense of such special permits shall be included in the price of this contract unless otherwise stated herein. Contractor shall not be obligated to pay any part of the primary building permit obtained by General or Owner, if such a permit exists, even though Contractor's work may be covered under that primary permit. Contractor shall not be responsible to pay any assessments or charges as specified in provision (1) above. Contractor will comply with all applicable building codes, statutes, regulations, and ordinances of any governmental agency or authority. Contractor will call for and be responsible for all inspections covered under any special permits that Contractor has obtained.

7. Cleanup & Surplus. Contractor will clean up and remove all surplus materials and debris, (leaving work areas broom clean), resulting from performance of its work. All surplus material is the property of Contractor.

8. Labor and Materials. Contractor shall pay all valid charges for labor and materials used on the work covered in this contract, but is excused from this obligation for all bills received in any period in which General is not current with progress payments to Contractor.

9. Destruction of the premises. If the building is destroyed by fire, vandalism, or other catastrophe, Contractor shall be paid the contract value of all work performed to that point and shall be relieved of any further obligations under this contract.

10. Construction Lender. General hereby authorizes the construction lender to make all payments directly to Contractor when due. General represents that the amount of the construction loan is sufficient to pay the price of this contract and that the scope of this contract is included in the construction loan account.

11. Guarantee and manufacturers warranties. Contractor to furnish to General and Owner a written guarantee covering all defects in labor unless specifications call for a longer period of guarantee), for a period of one year from the date of completion of this contract. Any material, product or equipment warranties that may exist are the sole responsibility of the manufacturer of the materials, products or equipment utilized.

12. Arbitration. If any question arises regarding the work under this contract, or regarding the performance of this contract, or regarding rights and obligations of Contractor and General with respect to the terms and provisions of this contract including any dispute over the plans and specifications or other contract documents, such questions or dispute shall be subject to arbitration. Arbitration shall be had in accordance with the Construction Industry Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, in effect at the time the arbitration is initiated, and judgment may be entered on the award. If any party does not appear at or participate in arbitration proceedings, the arbitrator is empowered to decide the controversy in accordance with whatever evidence is presented by the party(ies) that do participate. In the event arbitration is instituted by either party hereto, the arbitrator, as it shall deem proper, shall award to the prevailing party or parties reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

13. Legal Fees. In the event litigation arises out of this contract or the performance thereof, prevailing party(ies) are entitled to all legal, arbitration, and attorney fees. The court shall not be bound to award fees based on any set, fee schedule but shall if it chooses, award the true amount of all costs, expenses and attorney fees paid or incurred.

14. Notice. Any notice required or permitted under this contract may be given by ordinary mail at the address of both parties contained on page one of this contract. This address may be changed from time to time by written notice given by one party to the other. After a notice is correctly posted and deposited in the mail, it shall be deemed received after one (1) day.

15. Invalidity. If any provision, term, or condition in this contract is held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions, terms, or conditions shall nevertheless continue in full force.
