ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS- Unless otherwise specified herein, the following additional provisions are expressly incorporated into this contract:

1. Contractors Right To Cancel. Owner understands that final approval of this contract rests with Contractor and Contractor's installation and estimation departments. In the event this contract is not approved by Contractor, any payment made hereunder shall be refunded to Owner and this contract shall be null and void and of no effect. Contractor's commencement of work as scheduled or Contractor's signature herein shall constitute approval of this contract by Contractor.

2. Contract, Plans, Specifications, Permits and Fees. The work described in this contract shall be done according to the plans and the plan specifications (if any) except in the case of conflict when the provisions of this contract shall have control over both the plans and the plan specifications. All required building permits will be paid for by Owner and obtained by Contractor. All other charges, taxes, assessments, fees etc., of any kind whatsoever, required by any government body, utility company or the like shall be paid for by Owner.

3. Property Lines. Owner is responsible to locate and inform Contractor of the location of all property lines. At the discretion of Owner, Contractor may be required to provide at Owner's expense showing property lines.

4. Installation. Owner understands that Contractor has the right to subcontract materials.

5. Change Orders. Should Owner, contractor or inspector require any modification to the work, the cost of any change orders incurred by Contractor shall be added to the contract price. Contractor agrees to pay Contractor his normal selling price as well as any other modifications to the original contract price by both parties in a written change order. All change orders must be in writing and shall be incorporated herein.

6. Owner's Responsibility: Insurance etc. Contractor shall be responsible for the following: (1) to see that all necessary water, electrical, gas, and plumbing toilet facilities are provided on the premises. (2) to provide adequate premises for equipment and materials. (3) to relocate any existing equipment Contractor from having free access to the work area. (4) to provide for furniture, appliances, draperies, clothing and other personal items. (5) for antennas, vehicles, tools or garden equipment. In the event of damage to such items, Contractor may relocate these items as required and shall be responsible for damage to these items during the course of the performance of the work. (6) to obtain permission from the appropriate property(ies) that Contractor must use to gain access to the site and to be responsible and to hold Contractor harmless for the use of adjacent property(ies) by Contractor which are recognized during the course of the work. (7) for correcting any existing defects such as, but not limited to, code violations. (8) to maintain proper safety during construction, all Physical Loss with Valuation Schedule attached, in a sum at least equal to the cost of replacement of this contract. If the project is destroyed by fire, calamity, or by theft or vandalism, Contractor shall be responsible for reconstructing or restoring the project to its original condition.

7. Delay. Contractor shall not be held responsible for delays resulting from: work done by Owner or owner's agent including failure of owner to make payments for extra work, shortages of materials, weather, governmental regulations, or any other cause beyond Contractor's reasonable control.

8. Surplus Materials and Salvage. Any surplus materials remaining at the end of the contract has been completed are the property of Owner. No credit is due Owner on returns for any surplus materials. Salvage is based upon a complete job. All salvage resulting from the job shall be property of Contractor.

9. Cleanup & Advertising. Upon completion, and after removal of surplus materials, wherever possible, Contractor will leave premises in a clean condition. Owner hereby grants to Contractor the right to advertise at the job site for the period of time starting at the beginning of the contract and continuing uninterrupted until fourteen (14) days past the completion and payment in full has been made. Owner grants Contractor the right to publish the project street address on a "references" list which is for prospective customers.

10. Unanticipated Conditions & Concealed damage. Contractor shall be responsible for any dry rot or other deterioration or unanticipated condition is discovered during the course of the work. Contractor is not responsible for such discovered deterioration or condition and any work done to correct such will only be done as extra work in a written change order.

11. Hazardous Substances. Owner understands that Contractor is not a Hazardous Material Handler or Inspector or a Hazardous Waste Contractor. Should any hazardous substances as defined by applicable laws be present on the premises, it is the Owners' responsibility to remove or abatement of these substances.

12. Right to Stop Work and to Withhold Payment. If any payment is not made to Contractor as per this contract, Contractor has the right to stop work and keep the job idle until all past due payments are received. Contractor is further excused by Owner from paying for materials and/or labor suppliers or any subcontractors (hereinafter referred to as "suppliers"), during the period that Owner is in arrears in making payment to Contractor for bills received during that same period. If these same suppliers demand upon Owner for payment, Owner may make such payments to the suppliers and Contractor shall reimburse Owner for this amount. Contractor and Contractor shall reimburse Owner for this amount. Owner becomes current with Contractor for all past due payments and Contractor is responsible to verify the true amounts owed by Contractor prior to making payment on behalf of Contractor. Owner shall be responsible in any circumstances, to collect as reimbursement from Contractor the amount that exact amount actually and truly owed by Contractor to "suppliers", for work done or materials supplied on Owner's behalf.

13. Collection. Owner agrees to pay all collection costs, including but not limited to all legal and attorney fees that result from Contractor's collection of this contract. Overdue accounts are subject to interest.

14. Legal Fees. In the event litigation or arbitration proceedings, the prevailing party(ies) are entitled to all legal and arbitration fees. Arbitrator shall not be bound to award fees if the prevailing party chooses, award the true amount of fees incurred.

15. Arbitration of Disputes. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this proposal/contract, or the breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the applicable Construction Industry Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association which are in effect at the time the demand for arbitration is filed. A judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Any arbitration award shall be subject to correction and/or vacation for the reasons stated in the Code of Civil Procedure. The arbitrator shall award reasonable attorneys fees and expenses to the prevailing party. After being given due notice, should any party fail to attend arbitration proceedings, the arbitrator shall make a decision based on the evidence presented by the party(ies) who attend. Notwithstanding Contractor's right to waive any of its lien rights.
