SADLIER VOCABULARY WORKSHOP LEVEL BLUE FEATURE & LOCATION

DESCRIPTION

Introducing the Words (Unit Passages): Unit 1 "Why Bear Sleeps So Much" (Russian Folktale), pp. 6–7; Unit 4 "Wagon Train Diary" (Diary Entries), pp. 36–37; Unit 5 "Baucis and Philemon" (Ancient Myth), pp. 46–47; Unit 9 "The Competitive Edge" (Contemporary Fiction), pp. 88–89; Unit 12 "A Message for Norrod" (Science Fiction), pp. 118–119; Unit 15 "Pecos Bill Ends a Drought" (Tall Tale), pp. 150–151; Unit 17 "The Hunger Strike" (an Aesop Fable), pp. 170–171;

In Introducing the Words, students read a passage that presents all 12 Unit words in context. A different genre and theme are presented in each passage.

When reading a passage, students are directed to pay close attention to the context of the highlighted Unit words. Photographs and illustrations provide additional clues. This will both improve their comprehension of the passage and help them to begin to figure out the word meanings.

Located in the Teacher's Edition, the Introducing the Words lesson plan organizes instructional strategies into three parts: PREPARING TO READ, DURING READING, and AFTER READING.

Example [Level Blue, p.88]

The Competitive Edge (Contemporary Fiction)

Coach isn't always considerate of my feelings. Still, there's truth to what she says. If you took a poll, most people would say athletes are naturally competitive, but for some reason, I wasn't. Not that there's anything bad or improper about wanting to win—especially in sports. In fact, a competitive spirit is a healthy thing. So why didn't I have more of it?

Introducing the Words Lesson Plan: TE p. T22

Examples [Level Blue, TE p.T22]

DURING READING

- With students, read the brief introduction. Discuss the genre of the passage, and encourage students to name other stories and books they have read in the genre. Discuss any photographs or illustrations, pointing out how students can use the information in these visuals to help them better appreciate the passage.
- Guide students' focus and comprehension by having them answer key questions about the story.
- Remind students to pay attention to context clues that can help them figure out the meanings of the words and develop a better understanding of the passage.

AFTER READING

READING: LITERATURE: Key Ideas and Details

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.5.1 Quote accurately from a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.5.2 Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text, including how characters in a story or drama respond to challenges or how the speaker in a poem reflects upon a topic; summarize the text.

DESCRIPTION

In Shades of Meaning: Similes, students learn that a simile is a type of figurative language that involves a comparison of two unlike things using the words like or as.

In Shades of Meaning: Metaphors, students learn that a metaphor is a comparison of two unlike things that does not use the words like or as. They use context clues to help them figure out the meaning of metaphors used in the exercises.

The Teacher's Edition includes a lesson plan with learning activities for three stages of instruction: TEACH, PRACTICE/APPLY, and FOLLOW-UP.

In addition to the Shades of Meaning lessons on similes and metaphors, students learn about other types of figurative language—common expressions often featured in literature, including idioms, adages, and proverbs.

Writing Ask students to choose two proverbs from the lesson to apply to their own life. Have them write a paragraph that explains the relation to their life.

Vocabulary for Comprehension: "The Tallest Sailor in the World" (tall tale), pp. 34–35; "The Experience of a Lifetime" (fictional account of a visit to the 1893 Chicago World's Fair), pp. 158–159

Examples [Level Blue, p.35]

7. In this passage, the meaning of abandoning is

- (a) visiting.
- (b) forsaking.
- (c) occupying.
- (d) crossing.

8. The author most likely wrote this passage to

- (a) give facts about a real person.
- (b) persuade people to become sailors.
- (c) give facts about life on a ship.
- (d) entertain readers with a story.

Example [Level Blue, p.160]

Why Did the Woolly Mammoths Disappear? (Journal Article)

Before humans arrived in North America, giant-sized mammals walked the land. The best known were two elephant-like animals, the woolly mammoth and the mastodon. Less familiar is the short-faced bear, a rough and rowdy creature about thirty percent larger than today's grizzly. Sabre-toothed tigers, some weighing as much as 800 pounds, were a threat to any creature that trespassed in their territory. There were also giant wolves as well as camels, horses, and sloths. In terms of size, these creatures have no peers among the North American mammals of today.

TEACH

Remind students that some words have more than one meaning. Explain that when a multiple-meaning word is used in a sentence, they can figure out the intended meaning by using the context clues. Point out, however, that first they need to be familiar with the various meanings.

DESCRIPTION

In Vocabulary for Comprehension, students read a passage that incorporates six of the words taught in the prior three Units. After reading, students answer vocabulary-in-context and comprehension questions based on the passage.

The Teacher's Edition includes a lesson plan with learning activities for three stages of instruction: TEACH, PRACTICE/APPLY, and FOLLOW-UP.

In Completing the Idea, students apply their knowledge of word meanings by completing a writing activity. Within the context of a sentence starter that contains a taught word, they draw on personal experience or prior knowledge in order to complete the sentence.

Each Completing the Idea concludes with a Writing Challenge. Students write sentences that provide context clues for different meanings and parts of speech of a given taught word.

DESCRIPTION

In Introducing the Words, students read a passage that presents all 12 Unit words in context. A different genre and theme are presented in each passage.

When reading a passage, students are directed to pay close attention to the context of the highlighted Unit words. Photographs and illustrations provide additional clues. This will both improve their comprehension of the passage and help them to begin to figure out the word meanings.

Located in the Teacher's Edition, the Introducing the Words lesson plan organizes instructional strategies into three parts: PREPARING TO READ, DURING READING, and AFTER READING.

Located immediately after the Unit passage is Definitions, a two-page alphabetical listing of each of the 12 Unit words. The dictionary-style entry for each word includes its spelling, pronunciation, part (or parts) of speech, an illustrating picture (if applicable), and a short definition.

DESCRIPTION
Throughout the program students build and use vocabulary knowledge through a variety of increasingly sophisticated language arts activities. These activities include gleaning extended and short reading selections for context clues that unlock the meaning of unfamiliar words and phrases, as well as improve comprehension. Students practice regularly selecting and using the right words in their speaking and writing. Word-relationship and word-building lessons covering synonyms, antonyms, roots, and shades of meaning likewise help equip students for independent development of academic and domain-specific words and phrases.
