

Say It Another Way

1. “Actually I look just like my older brother.”
 - a. “My brother and I have a strong resemblance”
 - b. “My brother and I look alike”

2. “Do you and your twin have the same mannerisms?”
 - a. “Do you and your twin have the same gestures?”
 - b. “Do you and your twin use similar body language?”

3. “I’m finding that...”
 - a. “I’m noticing that...”
 - b. “I’m realizing that...”
 - c. “I’m seeing that...”

4. “Did she try to emulate you at all?”
 - a. “Did she try to be like you at all?”
 - b. “Did she try to act like you at all?”

5. “Do you have anything in common?”
 - a. “Do you have any common interests?”
 - b. “Do you share any hobbies or interests?”