

A Bad Day

A: Oh my gosh can you help us?

B: What's going on?

A: My husband is choking!

B: What? Where?

A: Over there at our campsite. I think he's choking on a piece of meat. Does anyone here know the Heimlich maneuver?

B: I don't but I'll find out if there is a doctor around.

A: Ok thanks please tell someone to come and help us quickly!

A: How was your hike?

B: Oh it was ok but I got this nasty bruise.

A: Wow, what happened to you? It looks like it's bleeding too.

B: I tripped and fell on my way down the mountain. It was bleeding so much at first that I almost passed out actually. I don't like blood. Do you know first aid or do you have a first aid kit on you?

A: No but there is a nurse's office down near the main entrance to the park. Do you want me to take you there?

B: Sure that would be great thanks.

Key Vocabulary Phrases

1. "My husband is choking"
2. "Does anyone know the Heimlich maneuver?"
3. "I'll find out if there's a doctor around."
4. "I almost passed out actually"
5. "Do you know first aid?"
6. "We've had a break-in"

Key Vocabulary Phrases

1. "My husband is choking"
2. "Does anyone know the Heimlich maneuver?"
3. "I'll find out if there's a doctor around."
4. "I almost passed out actually"
5. "Do you know first aid?"
6. "We've had a break-in"

A: Boston police department

B: Oh yes, officer, we've had a break-in at our home.

A: Ok ma'am are you in the house right now?

B: No I am at my next door neighbor's house. We came home from a weekend away and we realized that the door was wide open and we went in and saw that all of our furniture and appliances were gone.

A: Ok what is your address? We'll have an officer down there within 10 minutes.

B: We're at 182 Beacon Street.

A: We've been getting a lot of robberies in that neighborhood lately. We'll be down there soon. Sit tight.