

Say It Another Way

1. "My husband is choking"

- a. "My husband can't breathe."
- b. "My husband has something stuck in his throat."

2. "Does anyone know the Heimlich maneuver?"

- a. "Does anyone know how to get something out of someone's throat?"
- b. "Does anyone know what to do when someone is choking?"

3. "I'll find out if there is a doctor around."

- a. "I'll see if there is a doctor around."
- b. "I'll ask if there is medical professional around."

4. "I almost passed out actually."

- a. "I almost fainted actually."
- b. "I almost went unconscious actually."

5. "Do you know first aid?"

- a. "Do you know how to take care of someone in an emergency?"

6. "We've had a break-in"

- a. "Someone has robbed us."
- b. "We've had a robbery."

