

Say it Another Way

1. “Come on, you are such a perfectionist.”

- a. “Come on, you are such a stickler for perfection.”
- b. “Come on, you always insist on being perfect.”

2. “We have to put ourselves out there and launch it!”

- a. “We have to take a chance and launch it!”
- b. “We have to just get out there and launch it!”

3. “When I was a kid, I was always praised based on results...”

- a. “When I was a kid, I was always rewarded based on results.”
- b. “When I was a kid, I was always commended based on results.”

4. “I think our potential customers could be really critical of us...”

- a. “I think our potential customers could be really judgmental of us...”
- b. “I think our potential customers could be really disapproving of us...”

5. “It looks like we’ve hit a snag...”

- a. “It looks like we’ve hit a bump in the road...”
- b. “It looks like we’ve ran into a bump in the road...”

6. “...the worst thing we could do right now is stall.”

- a. “...the worst thing we could right now is come to a halt.”
- b. “...the worst thing we could right now is delay anymore.”

7. “Well if we put out an unprofessional image, I’ll get really down on myself.”

- a. “Well if we put out an unprofessional image, I’ll get really disappointed in myself.”
- b. “Well if we put out an unprofessional image, I’ll get really upset with myself.”