

Say It Another Way!

1. "The stocks went off a cliff."

- a. "The stocks went way down."
- b. "The stocks plummeted."

2. "I think things will come back to normal by tomorrow."

- a. "I think everything will be ok by tomorrow."
- b. "Things will probably be fine in a few days."

3. "They are seeing their stock values plummet."

- a. "They are watching their investments drop."
- b. "Their stocks are falling fast."

4. "They are going to change their spending habits"

- a. "They are going to spend their money differently."
- b. "They're going to be careful with their money."

5. "It's amazing how things can change at the drop of a hat."

- a. "It's incredible how things can change so quickly."
- b. "It's astonishing how things can change all of a sudden."

6. “If the market doesn’t come back up...”

- a. “If the market doesn’t recover.”
- b. “If the market doesn’t correct itself.”