

Dinner with the Parents

A: So how was the dinner at your girlfriend's house last night? Was that your first time meeting her parents?

B: Yes, it was and it didn't go so well actually.

A: Why? What happened? Oh gosh.... Don't tell me you got into another one of your heated debates about the new healthcare law. Come on, you know better than that.

B: I know, I know. I should have kept my views to myself, but I made an assumption that we were all on the same page about that issue. I thought we were more likeminded than we actually are.

A: I hope you didn't offend them. I mean, don't you like this girl? It's never going to work out with her if the parents don't like you. You've got to learn when

Key Vocabulary Phrases

1. "I hope you didn't offend them"
2. "I'm glad the conversation didn't veer toward sexual harassment in the workplace"
3. "You've got to learn when to draw the line"
4. "I made an assumption that we were all on the same page..."
5. "If you can't resist clinging to your own views..."
6. "Don't tell me you got into another one of your heated debates..."
7. "I should have kept my views to myself."
8. "I thought we were more likeminded than we actually are."

Key Vocabulary Phrases

1. "I hope you didn't offend them"
2. "I'm glad the conversation didn't veer toward sexual harassment in the workplace"
3. "You've got to learn when to draw the line"
4. "I made an assumption that we were all on the same page..."
5. "If you can't resist clinging to your own views..."
6. "Don't tell me you got into another one of your heated debates..."
7. "I should have kept my views to myself."
8. "I thought we were more like-minded than we actually are."

to draw the line and if you can't resist clinging to your own views, then at least change the subject.

B: Well I'm just glad that the conversation didn't veer toward some other controversial issue like sexual harassment in the workplace. I have some friends who have had some problems with this issue and I wouldn't have been able to resist asserting my point of view.

A: Ughh you'll never learn, will you? Well good luck with that relationship.