

Say It Another Way

1. "Are you excited to soak up the sun?"
 - a. "Are you excited to sit in the sun?"
 - b. "Are you looking forward to spending time out in the sun?"

2. "We won't end up relaxing at all."
 - a. "In the end, it won't be a relaxing vacation."
 - b. "We won't get to enjoy and kick back."

3. "There is nothing more relaxing than waking up in a tent next to a serene lake."
 - a. "There is nothing more relaxing than waking up in a tent next to a calm lake."
 - b. "I think it's completely relaxing to wake up in a tent next to a quiet lake."

4. "...strolling along the boardwalk"
 - a. "...strolling along the walkway by the shore."

5. "...during high tide."
 - a. "...when the tide is high."

6. "We can get take-out."
 - a. "We can order food and take it out."
 - b. "We can order out."

7. "We can explore the bay."

- a. "We can explore the area where the land curves in."