

Say It Another Way

1. “There are too many stressors here.”
 - a. “There are too many stressful things here.”
 - b. “There are too many sources of stress here.”

2. “...taking the subway to get everywhere.”
 - a. “...taking the subway to get where I need to go.”
 - b. “...taking the subway to get all over the place.”

3. “Don’t you want your kids to understand why diversity is so important?”
 - a. “Don’t you want your kids to understand why it’s so important to be around different people?”
 - b. “Don’t you want your kids to know why variety matters?”

4. “You have everything at your fingertips here”
 - a. “You have everything available to you here.”
 - b. “Everything is so accessible here.”
 - c. “Everything is so easy to find here.”

5. “He’s just a face in the crowd.”
 - a. “He’s just a number.”
 - b. “He is anonymous.”
 - c. “No one knows him.”

6. "It's just not for us anymore."

- a. "It's just not right for us anymore."
- b. "It's just not meant for us anymore."
- c. "It's just not a good fit for us anymore."

7. "Well to each his own I guess."

- a. "Well everyone should make their own decisions I guess."
- b. "Well I guess you have to choose for yourself."