

Say It Another Way

1. "I like to go online during my lunch break to get caught up."
  - a. "I like to go online during my lunch break to get the update."
  - b. "I like to go online during my lunch break to catch up."

2. "I think people are starting to face some challenges."
  - a. "I think people are starting to encounter some problems."
  - b. "I think people are starting to have some problems."

3. "I can feel my attention span is starting to dwindle."
  - a. "I can feel my attention span is starting to get shorter."
  - b. "I can feel my attention span is starting to lessen."

4. "There's a fine line between staying connected and being addicted."
  - a. "There's a small difference between staying connected and being addicted."
  - b. "There's a thin line between staying connected and being addicted."

5. "When a site fades out"
  - a. "When a site loses popularity."
  - b. "When a site disappears."