

APRIL 30 - MAY 2

APRIL 30 - MAY 2

Ann Kistler CKE Restaurants

Customer Spotlight: CKE Restaurants

APRIL 30 - MAY 2

Agenda

- 1. Implementation
- 2. Structure
- 3. Tactical Approach
- 4. Sustainability Components
- 5. Sustainability Process

reCONNECT 2019 APRIL 30 - MAY 2

Implementation - Plan, Execute, Maintain

Preparation

- CKE Requirements
- Set specific goals and timelines
- Prioritized suppliers based on risks

Execution

- CKE & FoodLogiQ supplier webinars
- Trained Category Managers on requirements
- Cross training

Support

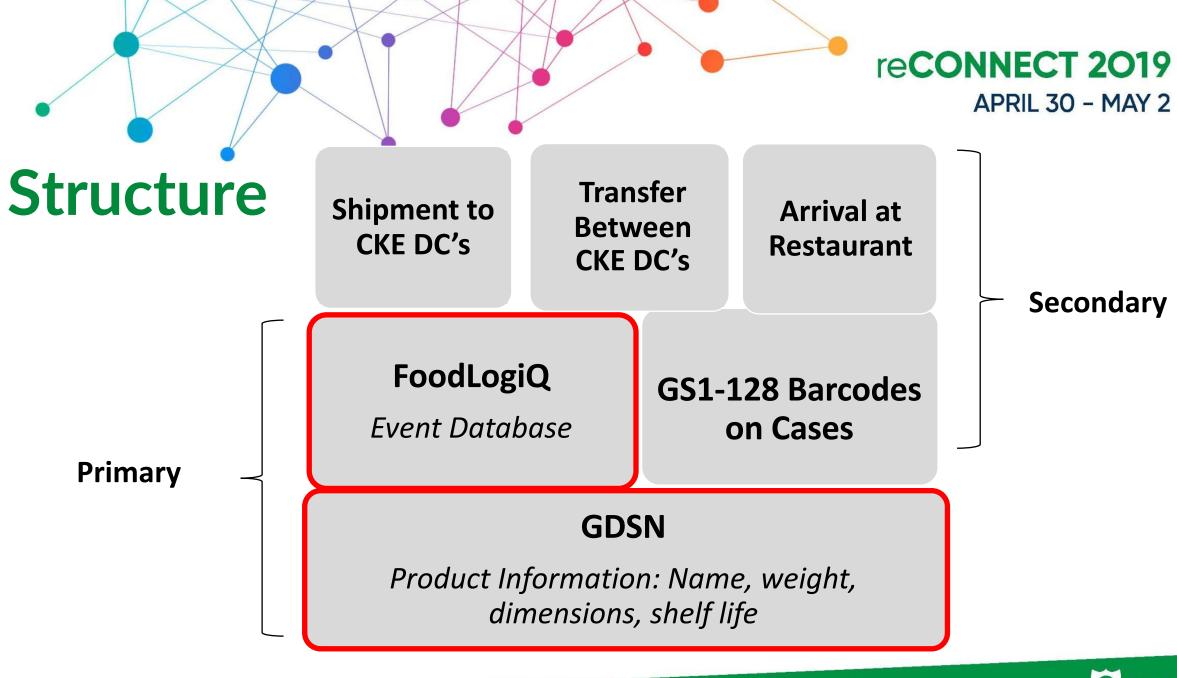

- Full executive support Top down
- Common internal goals and objectives
- Strategic alliances

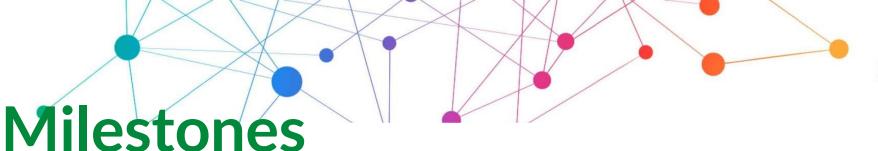

APRIL 30 - MAY 2

GDSN

Global Data Synchronization Network

Contains all product specific information

Global Trade Identification Number (GTIN) based system

FoodLogiQ

FoodLogiQ

Master traceability database that contains all products, supplier locations, DCs (within the CKE Supply Chain), and restaurant locations.

Commercialize Barcodes

GS1-128 Barcode

Product and Lot specific barcode applied to each case at the time of production.

Distribution Centers

Delivery information verified

GS1-128 Barcode is scanned at time of delivery to the restaurant

Ongoing Maintenance - Components

1. Suppliers

- FoodLogiQ Configuration
- Data to Distribution Centers

2. GS1-128 Barcodes

• Scannable %

3. Distribution Centers

- Scanning GS1-128 Barcodes
- Transactional Data DC to Restaurants
- Mock Recalls

Ongoing Maintenance - Process

1. Investigations

- Confirm suppliers sending data and
- DC's can scan GS1-128 barcodes

- Suppliers sending data? For ALL products? For ALL locations?
- Are DC's scanning barcodes? For ALL cases? For ALL sites?

3. Support

- Data Pool
- FoodLogiQ

APRIL 30 - MAY 2

Thank You!

