State Assemblymember Sharon Quirk-Silva Presents Proclamation to CMTC in Honor of Manufacturing Day 2017

Fullerton, CA – October 7, 2017 – In celebration of Manufacturing Day, held on Friday, October 6, 2017, California State Assemblymember Sharon Quirk-Silva (D 65th district) presented a proclamation recognizing CMTC – the California Manufacturing Extension Partnership Center and partnering organizations for their efforts in promoting this event. Receiving the award was CMTC President & CEO James Watson.

As part of the North Orange County Community College District's Manufacturing Day week of celebrations, over 100 high school students from La Vista/La Sierra, La Habra and Savanna High Schools visited Fullerton College to tour their machine technology and printing technology programs.

Fullerton College President Greg Schulz, Ed.D. and North Orange County Community College District Chancellor Cheryl A. Marshall, Ed.D. also spoke to the students at the presentation ceremony.

About CMTC

CMTC, a private non-profit corporation, was established in 1992 to provide consulting services to small and medium-sized manufacturers in California. In 2016, The U.S. Commerce Department's National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) awarded CMTC a five-year agreement to be California's Manufacturing Extension Partnership (MEP) Center. This agreement makes CMTC the lead organization for delivering services to small and medium-sized manufacturers in California with support of partners throughout the state. Through its collaboration with these partners, CMTC will enhance operational performance, new product development, market expansion and technology adoption for manufacturers in both urban and rural centers.
