UTILITY STRAPS

The Cord-Lox Utility Straps are adjustable cinch straps that have a wide variety of applications. Some uses include watch bands and luggage straps, securing cables to AV carts, or bundling up bulky or awkward equipment. These strong and lightweight straps are easy to use.

Simply wrap the strap around an object, and insert the hook end through the buckle. Pull tight and attach the hook to the exposed loop to secure. Custom colors, sizes and printing are available.
