

Impact of Coronavirus on Retirement Plans Webinar Presenter Biographies

Brian Jamnik, CPA - bdjamnik@herbein.com
Senior Manager, Herbein + Company, Inc.

Brian Jamnik, CPA is a Senior Manager in Herbein's Greensburg office and has over 20 years of experience working with clients in various industries including manufacturing and distribution, retail, construction and closely-held entities. For more than a decade, Brian has been responsible for the oversight of the Employee Benefit Plan Audit team in Western PA. He oversees approximately 30 plan audits with assets ranging from $1million to $500 million. This practice area includes the performance of defined contribution, defined benefit, ESOP and 11-K audits. He is committed to staying current with the latest developments in this field and, as a member of Herbein's Covid-19 Crisis Team, he is also committed to keeping Herbein clients up-to-date on the latest crisis-related developments effecting their businesses.

Dan Tatomir, AIF- dtatomir@fragassoadvisors.com
Vice President, Fragasso Financial Advisors

Dan Tatomir has nearly 20 years of experience in the financial services industry, with much of it focused in corporate retirement plans. As the vice president of the retirement plan department at Fragasso Financial Advisors, Dan is dedicated to the business development and ongoing relationship management of retirement plan clients, working to identify their unique needs and to design appropriate plans to serve their objectives. Dan also manages and implements plan participant communication, including enrollment meetings and participant education presentations.

Beth Bershok- eabershok@herbein.com (Moderator)
Regional Marketing Director, Herbein + Company, Inc.

Beth joined Herbein + Company, Inc. in 2009 as Regional Marketing Director focused on marketing and business development efforts in Western PA. Beth oversees the marketing and business development activities for the Western PA oces of Herbein - Pittsburgh, Allison Park and Greensburg. In that role, she handles sponsorships, events, external communications, development and delivery of media and community-related campaigns, branding and staff training in networking and practice development. Beth also serves as an ambassador for the rm in the community and with clients. Organizations that she devotes time to include the Allegheny Conference and their related groups of the Greater Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce and ATHENA Pittsburgh, the Women's Leadership Council of Southwestern PA, The Washington County Chamber of Commerce and Women for Economic and Leadership Development (WELD).