Human Capital Management & Employee Benefits Consultant Brown & Brown of Pennsylvania, LP

Originally from Baltimore, Maryland, Tim Mudd grew up in Glen Rock, PA. In 2007, Tim graduated from West Chester University with a bachelor's degree in marketing and began his career at ADP Small Business Services as a Senior District Manager. He quickly excelled in various departments, including Retirement Services, Small Business Services, and Major Account Services. After spending 4 years in sales and 5 years in leadership, Tim transitioned to Brown & Brown as a Human Capital Management & Employee Benefits Consultant in April 2016. In his current role, Tim's expertise focuses on all areas consisting of employee benefits, human capital management, 401k planning, and technology. In recognition of developing such a strong skillset, he has been the recipient of multiple accolades, including Rookie of the Year 2016, MVP of the Office 2016 & 2017, and MVP of the Region 2016 & 2017.

Outside of the office, Tim enjoys spending time with his wife, Lindsay, and their two young boys, Michael and Owen. When he's not coaching his sons' t-ball team, Tim finds a great sense of fulfillment volunteering at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and sharing his family's story with other parents to offer support and guidance through the complex journey of children's healthcare.
