7 Ways to Improve Your Youth Group

1. Greg referenced this Francis Chan quote: “Our greatest fear should not be of failure but of succeeding at things in life that don't really matter.”

- What “things” do people in youth ministry often try really hard to succeed in that don’t really matter?
- How can we get better at reminding each other about what really matters?

2. One of Greg’s points is that we should “Give the Gospel every week.”

- Do you agree or disagree? Why?
- How can we regularly remind our students of the Gospel within our small group discussions as well as individual conversations we have with them?

3. Another of his points was to “Invest your life in the few.”

- Who are the students that we could each invest our lives into?
- What does this look like from a practical standpoint: When? Where? How much time?

4. Greg’s last point was to “Create a story-telling culture.”

- What are the advantages of a story-telling culture?
- Do we have a story-telling culture? How can we focus on creating this more?
