FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Genesis Credit Sponsors 2015 Furniture First Symposium in Nashville, Tennessee

Beaverton, OR, May 26, 2015 – Genesis Credit, the leader in second-look financing programs, is a proud sponsor of the 2015 Furniture First Symposium at The Omni Hotel in downtown Nashville, May 31st through June 2nd. During the four day event, Genesis Credit will be exhibiting second-look and supplemental credit programs, showing retailers how they can increase sales and build customer loyalty by partnering with Genesis.

The Furniture First Symposium is a time for retailer Members to focus on their business and learn from other members and vendors during presentations and networking sessions. Guest speakers, Steve Gilliland, Steve LeFever, Cam Marston, and Mike Robbins will be presenting on topics ranging from refocusing your attention on what is important, driving unit profitability and growth, selling across generations, and the power of appreciation. The symposium is also holding multiple networking and breakout sessions to further educate and engage the attendees.

During the three day symposium, Genesis Credit will lead two round table discussions on how to sell credit to customers and leveraging second-look financing to increase sales. In addition, Genesis Credit will be exhibiting (Table K) how its second-look and supplemental financing programs enables retailers to provide near prime customers with credit that emulates a prime lender option. In addition to the quality of the programs, Genesis Credit also provides superior customer service and encourages repeat purchases that promotes brand loyalty for the retailers.
