Classes & Seminars

Band Rehearsals

Students will be placed into bands according to their age, skill level and musical interest. Once placed, they will be off and running on a creative journey writing their own original music and preparing to record at Q Division, one of New England's top studios.

Instrumental Labs

Throughout both weeks students will attend instrumental Labs led by experts. This class is an instrument proficiency group class. Students will learn essential techniques specific to their instrument. All instrument Lab classes are designed to be "hands on" and high energy.

Seminars

There are 5 specific seminars scheduled throughout the two-week program. Each seminar focuses on specific areas vital to being a successful musician.

- Musicianship
This class will focus on developing students musical ear, performance and reading skills.
- Theory in Performance
This class is geared towards Rhythmic and Melodic elements in music.
- Scales Studies
This class will focus on some of the most commonly used scales in music and how their relationship to key signatures and chords.
- Digital Recording
Students will learn the basics on some of today's newest software.
- Stage Presence
This class focuses on ways to over come stage fright and will teach students techniques to better prepare for upcoming performances.

Shooting a Music Video

Similar to our Core program, Students will shoot a music video that consists of live stage shots as well as conceptual ideas related to the lyrics and themes of their songs. All videos will be shot and edited by our trained video staff.

In The Past, Field Trips Have Included:

Berklee college of music

Berklee College Of Music

Students will head to Berklee College of Music for an behind the scenes tour where they will experience a day in the life of a Berklee student. The tour included a look at Berklee's new 160 Mass. Ave building, the Berklee Music Library, Berklee Performance Center and much more!

Zildjian

Zildjian Factory

Students will travel to the Zildjian Factory for an exclusive behind the scenes tour of one of America's oldest companies. They can learn about the history of Zildjian, early drumming, vintage instruments, cymbal storage vaults for artists and the drummers lounge where artists test cymbals. In the factory they will see most every process used in manufacturing cymbals including the ovens, cymbal rolling, cymbal shaping and cupping, cymbal cutting, hammering, lathing, silk screening and testing.

Umass Lowell

Students will tour Umass Lowell, running a mock recording session in Umass Lowell's famous million dollar studio. Here they will learn about various the music majors and degree programs Umass has to offer, while also getting the scoop on what colleges look for from their applicants. This full-day excursion will give students an excellent understanding of a day in the life of a college student, and prepare them for their recording session the following week at QDivision Studios.

Recording

Recording at Q Division Studios

Students will arrive at The Real School of Music at 8am on both Wednesday and Thursday the second week and be bused to Q Division Studios, which is located in Somerville, MA. It's here where they will record the 3 songs they've been working on and experience a world-class recording studio with a 28-year history at the center of the Boston's music scene. Q Division is known for its classic gear, amazing live rooms, and overall great sounding records.

Students will experience what it's like for professional musicians to record in a real live studio. Two consecutive days ensures the highest possible quality recordings.
