

Notices

Increase compliance with BerniePortal notices.

Stay Compliant

Employers are able to keep their employees updated by publishing important notices, such as a company wide announcements and updates to company policies. No more scrolling through email lists and selecting the necessary recipients. Send notices to employees and subgroups.

Send to Subgroups

Group employees together by subgroup and send the right notices their way in BerniePortal. Whether it's a company wide announcement or a change to a job description, BerniePortal can get those important messages across to your group.

Remind Individuals

Send out reminders to individual employees that are taking longer to review a notice and see who has already viewed their notice. Reminders are generated and can be personalized per employee depending on what form or document needs to be completed.
