

Acquisition FAQ

1. What does this mean for our company?
 - a. There will be no changes to your existing relationship with GoSecure/EdgeWave. This acquisition is a combination of two companies operating in similar, yet complementary, markets. The combined entity will be even better able to provide you the security your organization needs in today's world of advanced threats.
2. What happens to my current contract/project/subscription?
 - a. All current contracts and subscriptions will be honored and delivered as expected. EdgeWave customer renewals will be branded as GoSecure effective immediately.
3. Who is my sales rep?
 - a. For now, all sales/customer relationships remain the same.
4. How do I get support?
 - a. Support will be provided by EdgeWave exactly the same as before.
5. Will the company be changing names?
 - a. GoSecure is now the official name of the combined entity.
6. Will my products be supported?
 - a. All products will be supported as they were prior to the acquisition. There are no plans to change the support for either product portfolio. Any change in support will be outlined to affected customers far in advance of the change.