GAMEDAY PROGRAM

WELCOME TO THE 2019 RED RAIDER FOOTBALL SEASON!

This is Kevin Smith, Head Football Coach of the Ocean City Red Raiders. I would like to take a moment to welcome everyone to our 2019 football season. This is the 102nd year of Raider football. We are proud to carry on this illustrious tradition.

Traditions are important. They give us a sense of who we are and what we stand for. The tradition of football here at Ocean City has been invaluable. We have fielded championship teams over the years, but more importantly, football has helped turned our boys into young men. It has taught them hard work, discipline, teamwork, accountability and trust. It has asked them to make difficult sacrifices, like two-a-day practices in 90 degree heat when, in a town like Ocean City, they could be at the beach. It has pushed them beyond their expectations, helping them learn how to handle adversity and to overcome challenges. Beyond the wins and losses, these lessons have made football valuable to both our city and our culture.

The state of the current football program is one of excitement and expectation. Currently, there are over 90 players involved at the high school from the freshmen through varsity levels. Those are the biggest numbers we have had in over two decades. The varsity squad is coming off of back-to-back playoff seasons for the first time since 2000-2001 while the freshmen have gone 13-3 the past two years. The youth programs in Ocean City and Upper Township have experienced great success recently as well. It's a tremendous time to be a part of our program. We aim to make the community proud with our effort, our attitude and the product we put on the field.

Thank you to everyone for coming out and supporting us. Thank you for being a part of such a great tradition. And thank you for entrusting your sons to us and for allowing us the privilege of coaching them. Win or lose, we will do our best to teach them the great lessons of football.

RAIDER HISTORY

Welcome to the 102nd year of Ocean City High School football! Few schools in this area, in this country for that matter, can boast of over one-hundred years on the gridiron. Football in Ocean City is almost as old as football itself. It came to the high school in 1918, the year the NJSIAA was formed and the year America helped the Allies topple Kaiser Wilhelm in what was supposed to be "The War to End All Wars."

One hundred and two years later, the Red Raiders enter the 2019 campaign. Here's a look back at some of the great players and epic seasons of more than a century of OCHS football:

The first 50 years featured some successful teams. The Raiders were 9-0 in 1932 under Coach Von Henroid and were named South Jersey Group 2 champions. The 1945 team was 7-0-1 under Wilbur Clark, winning a South Jersey Group 1 title. And Ocean City won back-to-back Group 1 championships under Fenton Carey, for whom the stadium is now named, in 1948-49. OCHS also won four Cape-Atlantic League crowns under Carey, as well as one in 1951 under Coach Ed Cardner and again in 1967 led by John Cervino.

The 1970s featured a string of successful seasons under Coach "Iron" Mike Slaveski, who introduced weight training to the program. The Raiders continue to honor Mike's contributions by giving an annual memorial award in his name to the player most dedicated to off-season weight training.

Slaveski gave way to Ed Woolley, who in 1984 brought Ocean City its first Group III title by leading a 10-1 squad to victory over Willingboro in the ultimate game. Woolley's teams were known for their toughness and their brand of "power" football, which made Ocean City one of the most physically-imposing teams in the league at that time. Woolley was succeeded as head coach by a pair of his assistants - OCHS alum Tony Galante, and former NFL linebacker Wayne Colman.

In the 1990s, Coach Gary Degenhardt presided over the greatest era in the history of the program. Degenhardt's teams won or shared six Cape-Atlantic crowns and three sectional championships from 1992-2000. In 1996, the Raiders capped a 12-0 season by defeating Shawnee for the Group IV title behind 284 yards rushing from current OCHS running backs coach Kevin Sinclair. In 1998, the Raiders toppled Toms River South 34-22 to win the Group III crown at Rutgers Stadium. A season later, a 7-4 underdog squad won Group III again when it shocked arch-rival and previously undefeated Mainland 21-18 at Rutgers. The Mainland-Ocean City rivalry was perhaps the greatest in South Jersey during the 1990s, as each team won three sectional championships and battled each other for the league title nearly every season. The 1996 game, which Ocean City won 6-5 in a Nor'easter that saw wind gusts up to 60 miles per hour, featured over 15 players who would eventually play in college. It lives on as one of the great wins in school history. Coach Degenhardt stepped down in 2005, and the program has been manned by his former assistants, Mark Impagliazzo and Kevin Smith, ever since. Among the players from the early era selected to the OCHS All-Century Team for the 1900s were Charles Adelizzi (1929), John LePore (1929), John Carey (1929), Olaf Droz-

Players from the 1970s-90s include Mario Conte (1970), Mike Baldini (1972), George Savitski (1972), Bill Keele (1972), Frank Sannino (1972), Mike Linahan (1975), Joe Myers (1976), Tim Chatburn (1976), Kevin Murphy (1979), Fritz Ferrell (1984), David Miller (1984), Frank Sayers (1984), John Murphy (1984), Trip Snyder (1984), Chris Gunnels (1985), Leon Brown (1987), Doug Colman (1990), George Karayianis (1990), Danny Davis (1992), Rick Lipford (1993), Josh Baker (1994), Matt Daher (1995), Steffon Davis (1995), Kevin Sinclair (1996), Greg Lefever (1996), Matt Lefever (1996), Dennis Singleton (1996), Scott Lipford (1996), Pete Simon (1997), Ernie Nelson (1997), Austin Martin (1998), Brian DiDonoto (1998), Ray Rogers (1998), Matt Chila (1999), Al Genz (1999), and Ryan Taylor (2000).

In the 2000s, Steve Cook (2002), AJ Harris (2006), Rob Zauck (2008), Chris Curran (2009), Frank Woolley (2013), Christian Baumgardner (2015), Andrew Donoghue (2016), Dan Walsh (2016), Art Spackman (2017) and Brandon Lashley (2018) have been standout performers.

Among career leaders at OCHS, Kevin Sinclair is the all-time leading rusher, with a career total of 5,380 yards, which was a South Jersey record from 1996-2011. Sinclair also leads in career touchdowns (87) and points scored (532). Andrew Donoghue is the passing yardage leader, with 3,258. Al Genz has the most career touchdown passes (30) and Ryan Taylor has the most career receptions (97). On the defensive side of the ball, Ray Rogers leads in career interceptions with 10. Ernie Nelson's 21 career sacks rank first, while David Miller has the most career takeaways with 13.

Finally, Ocean City boasts one career NFL player, Doug Colman, who played for the Giants, Titans and Browns, and appeared with the Titans in Super Bowl 34 in 2000. Doug's father, Wayne, who coached at OCHS from 1973-1998, also played in the NFL for nine seasons with the Eagles and New Orleans Saints. The Colmans are one of the few father-son duos ever to play in the NFL.

101 years of Raider football in the books and many more to come. Here's to hoping the 102nd season is one worth remembering!

MEET THE RED RAIDER VARSITY COACHING STAFF

Kevin Smith - Head Coach

Raider Head Coach Kevin Smith is in his ninth season at the helm of the Ocean City program and his 24th season with Ocean City High School football.

As head coach, Smith has directed a rejuvenation of the program. After several rebuilding seasons, the Raiders are 22-13 in their past 35 games and have qualified for the state playoffs each of the past two years. Player involvement is up significantly from when he took over. In 2012, there were less than 50 players participating in football from the 9th-12th grade. Today, there are more than 90.

From a positional standpoint, Smith coaches the Red Raider offensive line and the safeties. Prior to becoming head coach, he was the offensive coordinator for Coach Mark Impagliazzo and coached special teams, wide receivers and defensive backs for Coach Gary Degenhardt. Degenhardt's Raiders won three South Jersey sectional titles between 1996-1999.

Smith's football program has developed off the field as well. Smith has instituted community service programs, including a reading partnership with 2nd graders at the Ocean City Primary School; has rebuilt the school weight room so that it now accommodates OCHS athletic teams on a year-round basis; has restructured the program's booster club; and has strengthened OCHS' relationship with the youth programs from Ocean City and Upper Twp. In addition, OCHS has produced 17 college football players during his tenure, from Division I through Division III.

At OCHS, Smith teaches Advanced Placement American Government.

Smith is a 1991 graduate of Gettysburg College, where he earned his undergraduate degree in History. He played football at Gettysburg for Coach Barry Streeter and was a three-year starter at strong safety.

Smith is married to Brenda Colon-Smith, who teaches Spanish at OCHS and is the Team Leader of the World Language department. He has two sons, Jake and Aidan, and a daughter, Shiloh. The Smiths reside in Ocean City.

Sean Matthews - Defensive Coordinator

Defensive Coordinator Sean Matthews is in his seventh year with the Raider football program. He coached two years at Sterling High School in Somerdale before joining the faculty at OCHS. He is a ninth grade Health and Physical Education teacher here.

Matthews' first two seasons as defensive coordinator have been highly successful. The Raiders qualified for the playoffs both years, the first time they have done so since 2000-2001. His unit racked up 24 sacks and forced 20 turnovers in 2017. The 2018 unit recorded two shutouts and held six of the Raiders ten opponents to two offensive touchdowns or less.

Matthews also coaches inside linebackers and coordinates the Raiders' off-season strength and conditioning program.

Matthews played scholastic football at Roman Catholic High School in Philadelphia, under the tutelage of Head Coach Jim Murphy. After his 2005 graduation, he attended Wesley College in Dover, Delaware. At Wesley, Matthews played under Head Coach Mike Drass. Before passing away suddenly last year, Drass amassed a 199-54-1 record over his tenure. Wesley is ranked 9th nationally among D3 football programs for the 2018 season.

During his tenure with the Wolverines, Matthews was a three year letterwinner at inside linebacker, and twice named team captain. Matthews was named three times to the ACFC All-Academic Team; twice to the ACFC All-Conference First Team; and one season Honorable Mention ACFC All-Conference. He was twice named d3football.com First Team All-South Region; was the 2008 ACFC Conference Defensive Player of the Year; and earned Division III 2nd Team All-America accolades for his senior season at linebacker.

Paul Callahan - Offensive Coordinator

Assistant Coach Paul Callahan will enter his fifth season in 2019 as the offensive coordinator of the Red Raiders.

Coach Callahan's up-tempo offense has been highly successful at Ocean City. In 2017, they became the first Ocean City offense this century to average over 30 points and 300 yards per game. In 2018, the offense broke the school record for most passing yards in a single season. Callahan has produced back-to-back-to-back 1st Team All-WJFL Independence Division quarterbacks the past three seasons in Andrew Donoghue, Harry Pfeifle and Ian Aungst. Each broke OCHS records as a starter under Callahan -- Donoghue set an OCHS record for career passing yards with 3,258; Pfeifle set the single season rushing record for an Ocean City quarterback with 838 yards and 16 touchdowns; and Aungst broke the school record for passing yards in a season with 1,981.

Prior to his arrival at Ocean City, Callahan coached at Rowan University for three seasons, spending one year as a wide receiver coach and two as quarterback coach. The Profs qualified for the NCAA D3 playoffs each year Callahan was with the program, and won the conference championship the last two. Callahan has also coached in the football programs at Widener University and Delaware Valley College.

Callahan has served as head football coach at Buena Regional High School and Camden Catholic High School; his teams, in aggregate, made the playoffs four times. He's also served as an assistant high school coach at Delsea, Buena, Allentown and Haddonfield. Callahan has also coached the sprinters in track at Buena, helping that program to three Cape-Atlantic National division titles.

Frank LaSasso - Defensive Backs, Running Backs

Assistant Coach Frank LaSasso began coaching in the Raider football program in 2009, when he joined the faculty at Ocean City Intermediate School as an eighth grade math teacher. He is the last remaining assistant from Coach Smith's original staff. He also has coached in the high school's baseball program since 2009.

LaSasso served as the program's defensive coordinator from 2011-2016 and remains integral in the preparation of defensive game planning and calling the defense on game nights. His 2015 defense set a school record by creating 29 turnovers. LaSasso's 2016 unit became the first to record multiple shutouts in a single season this century. LaSasso also assists with the running backs at Ocean City.

LaSasso is a Hammonton High School graduate. He was All Group 3 and First Team CAL at defensive back, and the Blue Devil football team appeared in the Group II playoff finals three out of the four years he competed. LaSasso played both football and baseball at Ursinus College, and graduated with a B.S. in Mathematics.

LaSasso is married and lives in Hammonton. He and his wife, Tiffany, have two sons, Frankie and Gino.

Tim Kelley - Wide Receivers/Special Teams

Assistant Coach Tim Kelley enters his fifth year teaching at OCHS and with the Raider Football program. The 2019 season will represent his ninth year overall of coaching football at the high school level. He spent his first four seasons as an assistant at Millville High School. Kelley will continue to coach the Raider wide receivers and also serves as the Special Teams coordinator.

He holds a B.A. in Health and Physical Education from Rowan University, and a M.S. in Athletic Administration from Ohio University. Kelley is certified as a Performance Enhancement Specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Kelley will teach ninth and 12th grade Health and Physical Education at OCHS. He is the head Girls Tennis coach and an assistant with the Girls' Basketball program. Kelley is married to his wife, Christina, and they have a son, Connor. The Kelleys reside in Upper Township.

Mike Eisenstein - Defensive Line

Mike Eisenstein joined the Raider staff as a defensive line coach in 2016 after serving for nearly 30 years as the defensive coordinator at Atlantic City High School.

Eisenstein enjoyed many successful seasons at Atlantic City, none more than the Vikings 1999 South Jersey Group IV championship. That game, played at Rutgers University, immediately followed Ocean City's 21-18 upset of rival Mainland Regional in the Group III title game. In the aftermath, Red Raider players sat in the stands at Rutgers and watched Eisenstein's defensive unit contain Eastern star Adam Taliaferro on the way to a championship of their own. Eisenstein's 1997 squad upset a heavily favored Ocean City team by holding them to just one touchdown. Prior to coaching at Atlantic City, Eisenstein was a member of the original staff at Egg Harbor Township High School in its inaugural season in 1983.

Eisenstein lives in Ventnor. He and his wife, Melissa, have two sons, Phil and Matt. Matt was a standout linebacker at Atlantic City and later played at Arizona State University. Eisenstein's father, Jack, was the superintendent of Atlantic City schools. The athletic complex at Atlantic City High School is named in Jack Eisenstein's honor.

John Bow - Wide Receivers, Defensive Backs, Special Teams

Assistant coach John Bow is in his second year with the Raider program after spending nearly 30 years as an assistant coach at Nottingham High School in Central Jersey. At OCHS, John assists with the wide receivers, defensive backs and special teams.

Coach Bow is a 1980 graduate of the University of Kentucky, where he played defensive back and special teams for the Wildcats. Some of Coach Bow's career highlights include a 42 yard interception return for a touchdown as a freshman in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, which Kentucky won 21-0; and being awarded a game ball as a senior after the Wildcats upset 16th-ranked Maryland. Prior to attending UK, John grew up in Miami, Florida, where he played football at Christopher Columbus High School.

John has been married to his wife, Tanya, for 33 years. The couple has two daughters, Ashley and Brittany, and a granddaughter, Stevie Rose. They reside in Somers Point.

Dan Sinclair - Assistant Coach

Coach Dan Sinclair joined the Raider coaching staff for the 2016 season, where he worked with the Freshman team's Running Backs and Linebackers. In 2017, he took on the role as Defensive Coordinator for the OC Red Raider JV team and also worked with the Varsity Running Backs.

Dan was a 4-year starter for Ocean City High School and graduated with the class of 1992. Sinclair then played football at Ranger College in Texas until transferring to West Virginia University. In 1998, Sinclair signed as a Running Back with The New Jersey Panthers based out of New Brunswick, part of the National Minor Football Association. Dan played in the NMFL for 6 years before coming back to South Jersey to play Linebacker and Running Back with the Cape May Devils and then South Jersey Storm. With an additional 10 years of playing in the Semi-Pros, Sinclair retired from full contact football after a total of 16 consecutive seasons after college.

Upon returning to South Jersey, Sinclair coached the Ocean City youth program, Upper Township Indians and South Jersey Storm.

Dan is the owner of Youth Gridiron Academy, a year round sports school that specializes in football skills enhancement to improve mental toughness, speed/agility, quickness, nutrition, hand-eye coordination and leadership ability. Youth Gridiron Academy is an affiliate of NFL Flag, powered by USA Football, and is also part of NFL PLAY 60, the league's youth health and fitness campaign. OCEAN CITY FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY is proud to support

OCEAN CITY RAIDERS FOOTBALL

Through the Raider Football community outreach program, players serve as "Reading Buddies" for second graders in Ocean City Primary School. "The boys get as much as they give from that experience," said Smith. In the Reading Buddies initiative, the players are matched up with second graders for weekly reading sessions, which culminate in the presentation of books co-authored by the pair and presented to friends and family at the Ocean City Free Public Library.

RED AND WHITE PRACTICE AND BBQ

Ocean City High School's football family convened in Upper Township on August 28th for the 7th Annual Red and White Practice and barbecue, an annual celebration of football and community.

"The Red and White event is a highlight for all of our teams every summer," said Head Coach Kevin Smith. "Getting everyone together this way makes the program and community stronger. Football is great that way."

"Our coaches and I truly thank all of those involved in pulling the evening together. I can't wait to watch the season unfold for all of the players here tonight," he said.

Nearly 400 youth and high school players, coaches and their families, enjoyed the hospitality of Caldwell Park -- the Upper Township Indians' home field.

The Ocean City Red Raider Football Association played host at the event, bolstered by Upper and OC youth supporters. The high school team practiced from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m., and were joined by the youth players from Ocean City and Upper Township -- along with their coaches -- from 5:15-6:15. The combined workout included drills, instruction and a community relay race. The practice concluded with a performance by the Raider cheerleading squad.

Once the practice ended, players, cheerleaders and families shared a meal provided by the Red Raider Football Association, Upper and Ocean City families.

"Every year I feel as though this is the real kickoff to our season," Smith said. "Once we get to Red and White Night, everything speeds up and gets hectic. It's nice to have a relaxed evening like this to see the younger guys, talk to people and just enjoy football in our community. It's like the calm before the storm."

Ocean City High School is comprised of students from Ocean City, Upper, Corbin City and Sea Isle City -- as well as school choice students. Upper Township's youth football program, part of the Cape Atlantic Junior Football league, draws from Upper and Corbin City, and is open to players from Ocean City and Sea Isle. Ocean City's youth program is part of the Atlantic County Junior Football League, and is open to Upper, Sea Isle and Ocean City children. Choice school students attend OCHS from Absecon, Margate, EHT and other local communities.

SEASON OPENER RECAP

The Ocean City offense scored five touchdowns on its first twelve plays from scrimmage and the defense recorded its third shutout in the past nine games as the Red Raiders rolled past Lower Cape May 35-0 in the season opener Friday night in Erma.

Wind gusts of up to 30 miles per hour made conditions challenging but the rain from Hurricane Dorian held off as the teams took the field. Ocean City received the opening kickoff and wasted little time recording its first score of the season, as junior running back Jake Inserra capped a four-play, 58 yard drive with an 18 yard run less than two minutes in. The Raiders forced a quick three-and-out from Lower and got good field position after the Tigers had to punt into the wind. From there, senior back Issac Wilson went around left end for a 17 yard score that made it 14-0. The Raiders added a third first quarter touchdown on their next possession when junior quarterback Joe Repetti threw his first varsity touchdown pass, a 42 yard scoring strike to junior wide receiver Jake Schneider.

The Raiders tacked on two more scores in the second quarter. First, Repetti found junior tight end Brad Jamison on a short seam route and Jamison outran the defense to the end zone for a 58 yard score. Later in the quarter, Wilson made it 35-0 when he scored his second touchdown on a 35 yard run. The final three Raider drives totaled three plays for 135 yards.

The second half was played with a running clock as the Raiders largely emptied their bench.

Statistically, Wilson led the running backs with 82 yards on 8 carries while Repetti was 6-8 throwing the ball for 143 yards and two touchdowns. Schneider paced the receivers with 3 catches for 68 yards.

On defense, Wilson, Jamison, Mike Williscroft, Tommy Oves, Will Drain, Matt Christy and Mike Rhodes all recorded sacks and tackles for losses. The Raiders first unit yielded just 60 total yards through three quarters.

"It was a great first week," head coach Kevin Smith said. "We wanted to start fast and play fast and we did those things. It's a long season though and we have to get a lot better to reach our goals. I'm proud of the effort but I'm looking forward to getting back to work."

RAIDER PLAYOFF HISTORY 1974-2018

Since the NJSIAA moved to a sectional championship play-off system in 1974, Ocean City has qualified 17 times, compiling a 13-13 record in 26 total games. The Raiders have played in five sectional championships over that time, winning four of them. The 1984, 1996, 1998 and 1999 teams were all South Jersey champs while the 2000 team was the runner-up. OC RED RAIDERS BOOSTER CLUB

The Ocean City Red Raider Football Association was formed in 2011 to support the football team at Ocean City High School. We are proud to continue that tradition.

The mission of the Association is to bring football and families together at Ocean City High School. The Association provides support and guidance to the coaching staff and to the 75-plus members of the football program.

In 2018, we fed homeless people in our community, fostered the love of reading among second graders and volunteered as refs and coaches with youth NFL Flag Football. We funded the strength and conditioning program, provided pregame and team meals, continued rebuilding the alumni network and handled the team's online presence - on our website, Facebook page, Instagram and Twitter. We created and distributed some 5,000 Raider GameDay programs and distributed promotional materials throughout the season.

The OCRRFA is a registered 501(c)(3) (tax-exempt) non-profit organization.

Our website is www.ochsfootball.com. We are on Facebook @OCRRFA; Twitter @OCHS_football; and Instagram ochs_football. For info, email FootballOCHS@gmail.com.

The Raider GameDay Program is designed, printed and distributed by Jacquelyn Tocci. For inquiries, contact her by calling (609) 602.6613, email at jacquelyn@tocella.com or visit www.tocella.com.

Always remember... The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams. Never stop. Never stop chasing your dreams. Never stop believing. Never stop being exactly who you are. We're so proud of the wonderful young man you've become. Keep it up! We love you! - Mom, Kalla, Lenox, Pop, Momom & all your Aunts, Uncles & Cousins
