This Policy describes how ServiceTitan may collect, use, process, disclose, and safeguard information we obtain through the Service and in connection with our customer, partner and vendor relationships. It also tells you about your rights and choices with respect to your information, and how you can contact us if you have any questions or concerns.

In addition to the activities described in this Policy, we process Personal Information provided by our enterprise customers (“Enterprise Customers”) when they use our Service. Our Enterprise Customers use our Service to run their businesses and provide service to their end-customers, and in doing so collect Personal Information about their end customers, including, for example, their name and address, the services that they perform for them, the locations of those services, the equipment involved as well as financial, payment and other end-customer information. We process such Personal Information as a data processor and service provider on behalf and on the instructions of our Enterprise Customers, which are the entities responsible for the data processing. To understand how an Enterprise Customer processes your Personal Information, please refer to that Enterprise Customer’s privacy policy.

This Policy is incorporated into and is subject to the ServiceTitan Terms of Service. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Policy have the meaning given to them in the ServiceTitan Terms of Service.

For the purpose of this Policy, “Personal Information” means any information relating to an identified or identifiable individual. We obtain Personal Information relating to you from various sources described below.

Where applicable, we indicate whether and why you must provide us with your Personal Information, as well as the consequences of failing to do so. If you do not provide Personal Information when requested, you may not be able to benefit from our Service if that information is necessary to provide you with the service or if we are legally required to collect it.

a. Personal Information Provided by You

Account Registration. If you register to use the Service, then you must provide us with your name, email address, and a password in order to create an account and user profile. Some types of user registrations also require a physical address or location. You may also optionally add other information, such as photos of yourself or, for some types of user registrations, your household.

Making Payments. When you make payments to or through the Service, you may need to provide Personal Information to our third-party service providers, such as your credit card number and billing address.

Financing. If you apply for certain financing options, we, our Enterprise Customers or third-party payment providers, as the case may be, may collect information such as your gender, birthdate, marital status and education and employment information as needed to process your applications with our financing partners.

User Content. We will collect any information you upload or post to or through the Service, including calls placed to numbers or services maintained by us or through the Service. For example, when you interact with other users by sending them messages, the Service will process the information you provide in such submissions, to the extent permitted under applicable law. b. Personal Information Collected via Automated Means

In addition to information that you provide to us, we may collect information about you and your use of the Service via automated means, such as cookies, web beacons and similar technologies:

Location Information. We may collect and store your location information, including GPS coordinates, if you enable your mobile device to send it to us. Collection of this information may improve the provision of the Service.

Cookies and Similar Technologies. When you use the Service, we may send one or more cookies – small text files containing a string of alphanumeric characters – to your device. We may use both session cookies and persistent cookies to automatically collect certain information. A session cookie disappears after you close your browser. A persistent cookie remains after you close your browser and may be used by your browser on subsequent visits to the Service. When you use the Service, we may also automatically collect certain information from your device by using similar technologies, including “clear gifs” or “web beacons.” Please review your web browser “Help” file to learn the proper way to modify your settings with regard to such automated data collection. Please note that if you delete, or choose not to accept, such technologies from the Service, you may not be able to utilize the features of the Service to their fullest potential.

The automatically collected information may include your IP address or other device address or ID, web browser and/or device type, the web pages or sites that you visit just before or just after you use the Service, the pages or other content you view or otherwise interact with on the Service, and the dates and times that you visit, access, or use the Service. We also may use these technologies to collect information regarding your interaction with email messages, such as whether you opened, clicked on, or forwarded a message. This information is gathered from all users.

We use this information to assess how many users access or use our Service, how they interact with our Service, which content, products, and features of our Service most interest or are of most value to our users, what types of offers and incentives our customers and their end-customers respond to, and how our service performs from a technical point of view.

Google Analytics. We work with Google Analytics, which uses cookies and similar technologies to collect and analyze information about use of the website and report on activities and trends. You can learn about Google’s practices by going to <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners/>, and opt out of them by downloading the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on, available at <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

Third Party Web Beacons and Third Party Buttons. We may also implement third-party content or advertising on the Service that may use clear gifs or other forms of web beacons, which allow the third-party content provider to read and write cookies to your browser in connection with your viewing of the third party content on the Service. Additionally, we may implement third party buttons (such as “like” or “share” buttons) that may allow third parties to collect information about you through such third parties’ browser cookies, even when you do not interact with the button. Information collected through web beacons and buttons is collected directly by these third parties, and ServiceTitan does not participate in that data transmission. Information collected by a third party in this manner is subject to that third party’s own data collection, use, and disclosure policies.
