

The Supported Employment Demonstration looks at how employment services, provided along with integrated behavioral health and social services, can help people experiencing mental illness get a good job.

Sponsor: U.S. Social Security Administration

Timeline: 2017 to 2022

Number of expected participants: 3,000

Participating community mental health agencies: 30

OMB Control No.: 0960-0806 Expiration Date: 07/31/2020

Employment

- Increased income
- Improved self-esteem and social networks
- Increased quality of life
- Better control of symptoms
- Reduced substance use
- Reduced use of mental health services

Unemployment

- Increased poverty
- Reduced self-esteem and social contacts
- Alienation and apathy
- More physical and mental health problems
- More substance abuse

