Digital storytelling reflection prompts

Use reflection prompts at the end of a video project to encourage deeper thinking among your students.

1. What I accomplished with this project:

2. What I learned about myself during this project:

3. What I learned about my classmates during this project:

4. What I could have done better with this project:

5. What I'd like to improve next time:

6. An aha moment that I had:

7. This project has inspired me to...