

NHBCO 2020-2021 Season
Important Dates and other items

ASSOCIATION WEBSITE: <https://nh.nhsbca.org>

November 30th- $45.00 dues should be paid for by this date. There are also program ($85) and School ($145) rates available as well as Middle School, Freshman and Junior Varsity rates of ($20) A $5.00 late fee will be charged after Dec. 14th

January 8th - The NHIAA official's recommendation list is due. You as a coach get to vote for officials who work the tournament. This is an NHIAA initiative but is very important for Basketball coaches to be a part of. This list is sent to the NHIAA. Your Class Rep will be sending you a sheet sometime in December through email that has directions and a list of officials.

January 3rd – Nominations will be due to each class rep by Jan 3rd for all state- Each school can nominate up to four players. Nominees do not have to be seniors; Very important--- Spell names correctly, list position, size and uniform number. Send to your class representative. Send nominees in order of ability. (List your top player first) Example:

	No.	Players Name	Positions	Height	Year
1	23	Jeff Holmes	G	6'3"	12
2	10	Jamie Hayes	F	6'4"	12
3	15	Jay McKenna	G	5"11"	11
4	00	Cassie Turcotte	C	6'8"	10

Note: Very important, nominate who you feel are your best 4 players. No nominations will be accepted after Jan 10th.

February 3rd- All-Academic certificates will be emailed to each coach. The coach should check with the schools guidance counselor to see which juniors and seniors are eligible for this award. Helpful Hint---Turn your All-Academic List into your school's guidance department at the end of quarter 2 which is usually mid-January. This will give them plenty of time to have it ready for you.

February 7th- All State Ballots will open for online voting. Ballots will close on Feb.12th. No votes will be accepted after noon on the 12th.

February 10th- Mr. Ms New Hampshire Basketball nominations are due to Jeff Holmes(Boys) jholmes@sau16.org and Steve Largy (Girls) slargy@gmail.com

February 10th- Jack Ford Awards due to Class Reps

March 7th- NHBCO Spring Membership Meeting 10am-12 and will be held at NHTI in Concord– This is a change from the past, we hope having this meeting a week earlier will allow coaches to get All-State Awards and info a week prior to the All-Star Games. Announcement of the All-Star Games at NHTI will be done at this time as will specialty awards such as: Mr. and Ms. Basketball and divisional Jack Ford Awards.

* if you have a candidate for Mr. or Ms. NH Basketball or Jack Ford Scholar Athlete you will need to turn in Paperwork at this time. Mr. and Ms. NH Basketball is 50% Basketball, 25% Academics and 25% Sportsmanship. Jack Ford Scholar Athlete is 33% Basketball, 33%, Academic and 33% Citizenship/Community Service. The players' coach is the only person who nominates a player for these prestigious awards. Forms and directions for nominating a candidate are on the website listed above I will also send copies by email to the Class Reps.

TBA. - NHBCO Senior All-Star Games at NHTI in Concord. Division $\frac{3}{4}$ Games and Division $\frac{1}{2}$ Games.
