Pennsylvania Basketball Coaches Association

The Pennsylvania Basketball Coaches Association was established in 2016 to increase communication and opportunities for the professional development of basketball coaches. Our goal is to maintain the highest possible standards of the basketball coaching profession, and to work together to improve the game of basketball in Pennsylvania.

Our support is focused on all individuals who coach basketball and mentor young men and women as a profession. PABCA members have the opportunity to continually improve their skills and knowledge, engage in healthy dialogue relative to coaching issues, and network with their peers.

As we encourage the pursuit of sportsmanship and character development, our aim is to help the advancement of Pennsylvania basketball while fostering friendship and support among coaches, referees and others who have a vested interest in the game.

We will promote efforts to enhance professional growth, advocate and maintain the highest possible standards and ethics in the coaching field, and provide our members with the latest coaching methods and techniques in reference to teaching basketball.

Any coach can become a member of the Pennsylvania Basketball Coaches Association by filling out the membership application at www.PA-BCA.org

CONGRATULATIONS!

WIN PALMER

Win Palmer earns 600th victory!

Sewickley Academy boys basketball coach Win Palmer. Now in his 17th season coaching in the WPIAL, Coach Palmer has 3 WPIAL championships and one PIAA crown. Also the school's athletic director and softball coach, Palmer previously coached in Virginia before coming to Sewickley.

Winning has been common for Palmer's teams through the years at St. Stephen's (Va.), Flint Hill (Va.) and SA. Palmer won four Virginia Independent School state titles before coming to Sewickley, where his teams have three WPIAL titles and a PIAA title.

To hit 600 wins has required consistency between Palmer's teams through the years, and when talking about the milestone, he recognized that every team from his first year coaching until today contributed to his record, which stands at 602-271 entering this week.

"The most important thing for me is that it brings back memories of outstanding teams and outstanding players through the years. I never compare teams, but the sum of all those great memories is what makes it special," Palmer said.

Palmer can be forgiven if No. 600 doesn't carry quite the excitement that No. 500 did for him. That win was Sewickley Academy's triumph in the 2010 PIAA title game and the final game for his younger son, Tyler, for the school that has become Palmer's home the past 16 years.

CONGRATULATIONS! ³

JONNA BURKE

Jonna Burke earns 400th victory!

Bethel Park basketball coach Jonna (Huemrich) Burke was recognized at the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament March 2-6 in Greensboro, N.C.

She was named to the 12th annual class of ACC Women's Basketball Legends.

Burke played for the University of Pittsburgh. As a Panther, she compiled 1,807 points, which ranks seventh on the school's career scoring list. Along with being a prolific scorer, she affected the game in other ways by tallying 954 rebounds and 224 steals, putting her among the Panthers' all-time top 10 in those categories as well. She was the 1990-91 Big East Rookie of the Year. She went on to earn second-team conference honors as a sophomore, and first-team honors as a junior and senior.

A standout at Bethel Park, where she also registered over 1,000 career points, Burke was inducted into her high school Hall of Fame in 2001. She has been the head women's basketball coach there since 2003 and led her team to the 2013 Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League (WPIAL) title. She was also a 2010 inductee into the Western Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Prior to returning to the bench at her alma mater, Burke coached four seasons at Butler High School. She has amassed 384 career victories heading into the playoffs.

For Dori Oldaker, Coaching Basketball Is In Her Blood

Western Pennsylvania is generally considered football country, but don't tell that to Dori Oldaker. Entering her 12th season as the girls basketball head coach at Mt. Lebanon High School in Pittsburgh, Oldaker has always been all about hoops.

"It's what we did," said Oldaker, a veteran USA Basketball coach who most recently led the U.S. Youth Olympic Women's Basketball Team to a gold medal in the 3x3 competition at the 2014 Youth Olympic Games in Nanjing, China. As a basketball player at Blackhawk High School, she earned Beaver County Co-Athlete of the Year as a senior in 1986.

"I grew up at a school where Sean Miller, the head coach at Arizona, was a year younger than me. His brother, Archie Miller, is the coach at Dayton. I grew up learning a lot about basketball from their father, John Miller, who was the coach at Blackhawk. Blackhawk was a big basketball school."
