Welcome & Opening Session

Hear from Jack Haye, President of Patrick Henry College, and PHC Alumna Brooke Hamlin (Journalism '11).

President Jack Haye is a 30-year veteran of the corporate banking world, and he holds degrees from Baylor University and American Graduate School of International Management, including a Masters of International Management-Finance and Accounting. Pres. Haye served as Executive Pastor of First Baptist Church of McKinney (TX). He passionately believes that the College has a unique opportunity to be a significant voice in the national conversation because it trains up young leaders who understand what it means to integrate both faith and reason in all aspects of their lives.

Brooke Hamlin is a native of West Virginia. She graduated from Patrick Henry College in 2011 with a B.A in Journalism. Mrs. Hamlin published her first children's book, "Noah's Invisible Adventures" in 2014, and she chronicles the excitement of a life lived with Jesus at www.theunboring.com. She lives with her husband, son, and baby girl in Martinsburg, WV, where they both serve on staff at their local church.
