GET THE TENDERING ADVANTAGE WITH THOR, POWERED BY HIGHPOINT

Meet THOR, Powered by HighPoint, our new tendering intelligence data service. THOR provides seamless strategic insight into today's global tender market. You get the expert data insight necessary to successfully compete for tendered procurement contracts. THOR especially improves tender awareness as it unveils all public opportunities by leveraging historical publications and screening the market daily.

THOR IS YOUR CUSTOMIZED REPOSITORY FOR ALL OFFICIALLY PUBLISHED TENDER DATA FROM TENDERS ELECTRONIC DAILY (TED)

A tendering intelligence solution is only as good as the data it's sourced from. As of today, THOR provides a continuous feed from Tenders Electronic Daily (TED), the European Union's centralized portal for electronically published tenders, established by the European Public Procurement Directive (EU PPD).

THOR is continually updated via TED and allows adjusted views of your targeted tenders by:
