The Tando™ Difference

Tando represents the creation of something new and completely different from what the building products industry has come to know as exterior cladding.

It is the culmination of the best of what two great brands — Novik and Exteria — have built their business and their reputation on. Tando is an all-star product portfolio designed to address the evolving needs of the professional installer, remodeler and home builder.

Created for Today's Unique Home Exterior Needs

Tando Building Products was born out of research that shined a light on an unmet need in the marketplace — a disconnect between what installers and homeowners are looking for, what the industry standards are calling for, and the range of materials and technologies that are available today.

Tando was created to:

- ◆ Meet the consumer's need for low maintenance exteriors without having to compromise on the natural beauty and realism of authentic cedar and stone
- ◆ Leverage the installer's creativity and desire to turn ordinary walls into breathtaking mixed material exteriors
- ◆ Address and mitigate concerns around moisture management

Introducing TandoShake™

In the beginning there was wood — and it was beautiful. But it needed to be maintained to slow down (but never completely stop) the effects of Mother Nature. Then came vinyl, fiber cement and finally TandoShake:

- ◆ Easier to install and more workable than other options
- ◆ TandoShake puts the power of choice and creativity back into the hands of the professional installer
 - Architectural style
 - Texture
 - Wood stain
- ◆ Proprietary technology and processes that deliver a look and feel so real, you'll want to touch it
- ◆ Unparalleled durability
- ◆ Backed by an industry-leading warranty

TandoShake™ offers the largest shake selections in the industry — so broad that our shakes are organized by texture.
