INTEGRITY COUNTS

Once you've clicked on case to open it, you'll be taken to the Case Details where you will be able to see the Description of what the whistleblower has reported.

The Case Details will give you a quick snapshot of the reported date, location of case, department of case, and if the whistleblower has provided it, you'll see their name, email and or phone number.

*NOTE if the whistleblower has decided to remain completely anonymous, you won't be able to see any contact information. It is up to the whistleblower to log back into IntegrityCounts themselves to see if there are any updated, to their case, or questions pending their attention. The next tab is the Case Settings tab. When you click here you will see that any newly reported cases are automatically assigned a default Status of Pending and a Priority of Normal.

The next section is the Reviewers tab. Here you will see list of individuals in your organizations who have been tasked with the role of investigating cases on a case-by-case basis. They do not receive a notification when new cases have been reported, However, should you choose to assign a case to one or more of the individuals listed below, they will receive a notification that a case has been assigned to them. They will use the information in that email to log into their account, and start investigating the case they have been assigned to.

The list of names you see in the Implicated Individuals tab are any of your company Reviewer managers who may have been implicated in a reported case. This means any names who have been checked off did not receive the automatic notification once the whistleblower submitted their case.

If a reporter has checked off a Reviewer Manager above in a reported case, that case will not be available in the Case Manager when the Reviewer Manager logs into their account.

The only people who are able to uncheck any Implicated Individual if it was checked off my mistake, is the reporter themselves if they log back into review their case, or WBS Admin by way of written consent from the company.
