

SALES TAX 101

A QUICK START GUIDE TO FILING & PAYING

As a small business owner, you have a never-ending to-do list.

That's why it's easy to miss a sales tax filing deadline or be short on funds when it's time to pay. Stay ahead of the game with this handy guide, which includes information you need to know to file and pay sales taxes.

Late-filing penalties & on-time payment discounts

Many states are known for strict tax enforcement: small business owners must pay a percentage of any unpaid tax for failures up to 30 days. Small business owners must pay an additional percentage of any unpaid tax for each additional 30 days, or fraction thereof, not to exceed 50%.

In some states, small business owners who e-file a return and electronically pay their tax on time will receive an on-time payment discount.
