September's Inspirational Quote

Everyone must take time to sit and watch the leaves turn.
- Elizabeth Lawrence

Let's Recognize National Assisted Living Week!

When someone is unable to independently care for himself or herself, an assisted living organization can step in to make that person's life more comfortable and secure. The people who assist individuals needing care are selfless beings who put their heart and soul into their jobs. We salute and thank those kind and considerate workers during National Assisted Living Week.

A big thank you is in order to all the grandparents in our community!!

First of all, thank you for loving us even when we were not always lovable. Thank you for the great advice and wisdom you passed on through the years. Thanks for baking cookies with us and for those special times we got to spend with you. Thanks for hugging us, letting us sit on your lap and listening to all of our stories, as well as a sad tale or two. Finally, thank you for sharing your lives with us. You helped us become who we are today. You made us better people.

It is hardworking people like you who make our community and country great. So relax and enjoy this last official holiday of the summer season.

Trivia Whiz

Grand Characters

Grandparents on TV shows and in the movies are much like those in real life. Here are a few favorite on-screen grands.

Esther and Zeb Walton, "The Waltons." Grandma and Grandpa Walton, both strong and persevering, are the pillars of their close-knit family of 11 who live in rural Virginia.

Adolph Kramer, "Heidi." A granddad with a gruff exterior grows to form a loving bond with his lively granddaughter Heidi.

Estelle Winslow, "Family Matters." Despite her age, Mother Winslow is hip and trendy. She's the glue that binds this Windy City family.

Marie and Frank Barone, "Everybody Loves Raymond." The elder Barones live across the street from their son, making it easy for them to meddle.

Pioneer Day!
