We will have a “Get to Know Pastor Matt” reception with light refreshments on Sunday, March 10, after the 11:00 a.m. service. Pastor Matt officially joins the South Bay team on Monday, May 20.

Matt has studied pastoral leadership, Biblical studies, and vocal performance at Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia. He has a passion for helping people deepen their walk with Christ and has significant experience in leading teams and small groups.

Matt has served in two pastoral internships, one being James MacDonald’s Harvest Bible Chapel in Rolling Meadows, Illinois. At Harvest, Matt worked with adults, students, and small groups. He also led various team projects.

Pastor Matt will be the Groups Pastor at South Bay. He will be responsible for casting and communicating vision and inspiring participation in South Bay Community Groups. He will also oversee Servant Evangelism projects and be dedicating time to reaching out to community leaders.

Pastor Matt loves the Dallas Cowboys, hates all things celery, and takes a little cream and a couple of spoons of sugar with his coffee. He’s a barbecue connoisseur, loves The Office, and absolutely delights in Long Island egg sandwiches on a hard roll. Matt has a passion for Nascar, enjoys deep conversations with friends, and would have been a chef had God not called him to vocational ministry. Matt’s favorite verse is Psalm 90:12, “Teach us LORD to number our days that we might gain a heart of wisdom.”
