EAST MORICHES, NY – South Bay Bible Church is pleased to announce this year's community Christmas services on Saturday and Sunday, December 21-22 and Tuesday, Christmas Eve at 578 Montauk Highway, East Moriches. The whole family is invited to celebrate the true meaning of the season.

Begin Christmas week with carols and a message designed to remind you of God's extraordinary love on Saturday, December 21, at 5:00 p.m. and Sunday, December 22, at 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. Learn why you need Christmas, and it might not be for the reasons you think.

"The Christmas story is actually the greatest demonstration of love ever given," said Martin Hawley, pastor. Don't have an ordinary Christmas this year, infuse new love with fresh peace by reflecting on the greatest gift ever given.

Return on Christmas Eve, at 5:00 or 7:00 p.m. for special candlelight services, more seasonal carols, and hear a presentation to warm your heart.

All Christmas services at South Bay Bible Church are family-friendly with familiar Christmas carols, holiday blessing, the traditional Christmas story, and a reflection and life-lesson on the birth of Jesus. South Bay is a happy and welcoming place where you can relax in a warm holiday atmosphere that will recharge your spirit and rekindle your joy. You'll form new and lasting friendships, find lively, familiar music, and fresh, relevant messages in the warmth of Christian community.
