When this building was razed, it was replaced with a two story building which housed the Red Owl Grocery Store on the first floor and living quarters on the second floor. Currently the building is used as apartments.

The Hayton Syndicate met to plan a railroad to run from Fond du Lac to Manitowoc, to be called the Northeastern Railroad. However, it did not become a reality. Seated on the left is Anton Seichter and standing in the back holding the map is Robert Woelfel. The meeting took place in the upstairs of the General Store in Hayton.
