How We Share Personally Identifiable Information Collected through our Website

We consider your personal information to be confidential and so we limit our sharing outside of Old Republic Risk Management. In the course of conducting our business, there are circumstances in which we may disclose your personal information to others. We share your personal information only with your authorization or as otherwise permitted or required by law. When personal information is shared with another party to perform services on our behalf, we expect them to maintain the confidentiality of your personal information, to use the information only for the limited purpose for which it was shared and to abide by all applicable federal and state privacy laws. Such sharing may include:

Prospective Insureds and Insured Persons

- Old Republic affiliates and/or subsidiaries in relation to a requested service or product or for usual business operations.
- Insurance agents/brokers, reinsurers/other insurers, third-party administrators to underwrite, assess and evaluate risk and for administrative purposes.
- Other business partners or service providers for operational and administrative purposes.
- Regulators, government authorities, or law enforcement to comply with applicable law, regulation, inquiry, investigation, subpoena, summons, or legal process.
- Consumer reporting agencies, insurance-support organizations, or other organizations to prevent or detect fraud.
- Other third parties in any actual or proposed sale, merger, joint venture, assignment, transfer or other transaction related to any part or portion of our business.

Claimants and Beneficiaries

- Third-party administrators, agents/brokers, investigators and adjusters for claims management.
- Regulators, government authorities or law enforcement to comply with applicable law, regulation, inquiry, investigation, subpoena, summons, or legal process.
- Participants in a legal process including lawyers, witnesses, investigators, and others we believe necessary or appropriate in the administration of a legal matter.

We may also transfer to a third party the personal information as an asset that is part of a merger, acquisition, bankruptcy, or other transaction in which the third party assumes control of all or part of the business.

To Opt-out of the Sale of Your Personal Information

Nevada law gives consumers the right to direct a business not sell personally identifiable information the business has or will collect online about a consumer. We do not sell and will not sell your personal information as that term is commonly understood.

Right to Access and Correction

To access the personally identifiable information collected through our website send a signed written request to us at the following address: PrivacyRequest@orm.com and include your name, address, along with your policy or account number if you have one. For your protection, we may use reasonable means to verify your identity prior to sending you this information. If you believe that any information about you is inaccurate, you may notify us in writing about any correction, amendment or deletion you believe should be made. We will carefully review your request and, where appropriate, make the necessary change.

Do Not Track Disclosure

“Do not track” is a technology that enables users to opt-out of tracking by websites they do not visit. We do not disclose personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes. Additionally, we do not collect personal information from your online activities over time and across other websites or online services and we do not allow third parties to use these technologies on our sites. Because we do not use these technologies, we currently do not monitor, respond or take any action to web browser “do not track” signals or other similar mechanisms.

Changes to our Privacy Notice

If we make any material changes to our privacy practices the Privacy Notice will be updated by posting the revised version of this Notice on the Old Republic Risk Management website under the Privacy Notice link on the website homepage. The updated Privacy Notice is effective as of the date listed at the top of this document. By accessing any of our products, services and website after this date you agree to the terms of our Privacy Notice as of the last effective date however, we will honor the terms that were in effect when we first gathered data from you.
