Our Promise

Native Hope, as the name suggests, believes that hope is at the foundation of real change. Change opens up doors to possibilities and dreams. If we are going to see changes for the next generation, it's going to start with hope.

When you support our movement, we promise the following:

100% of your donation will help fund vital programs for Native American youth

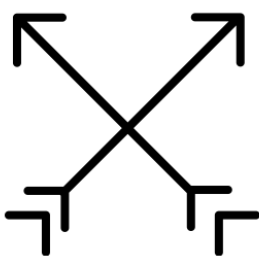

You will have access to financial statements

You have the freedom to ask questions and express concerns

We will provide information on our mission, vision and values

When you partner with Native Hope, you are helping to empower the next generation of Native Americans

Your donation helps provide programs for the 9 Lakota, Dakota, and Nakota tribes of South Dakota

We will respect your privacy and will not share your information with other organizations

We will use your donation for the intended purpose
