The Nuts & Bolts: A Quick Guide to Getting Started with FPC

Welcome to Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™

Congratulations on the journey ahead – a journey that will transform your classroom, your teaching, and the literacy lives of your students. As you prepare to unpack, organize and implement FPC, we at Heinemann are honored to partner with you to ensure an efficient and effective plan for getting started with FPC. You may be asking yourself, "Where do I start?" Start here, with this quick guide on the available resources to unpack, organize and begin implementing FPC.

IF you are looking to….	THEN locate this resource…
1. Identify what grade and/or instructional context is contained in each box	Find the white shipping label on each box that identifies the instructional context, grade and box number.
2. Register and access your Online Resources	FIRST: Locate your Teacher Box. (Hint: it's the smallest of the boxes) SECOND: Find your Collection Guide located in the box. THIRD: Use the code located on the inside front cover to access Online Resources FOURTH: Visit the FPC Online Resources homepage to view the Getting Started videos and access other implementation resources. FIFTH: Find your FPC organizational stickers located in your Teacher Box to organize and label your resources. NOTE: Includes access to the free implementation course coming in August 2019.
3. Unpack, organize and implement FPC	Organizing Your Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™: An Interactive Implementation Plan (Also available in your Online Resources) http://www.fountasandpinnell.com/resourcelibrary/id/415
4. Plan and/or begin the first eight weeks of instruction	COMING EARLY 2020: Visit the FPC Online Resources homepage to access a PDF of the Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™ Instructional Plans to get started, gain momentum, or simply reference during the first eight weeks. https://resources.fountasandpinnell.com/classroom/home
5. Introduce FPC – a coherent, systematic approach to literacy teaching and learning – to your school/district.	Preparing for Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™: An Interactive Action Plan (Also available in your Online Resources) http://www.fountasandpinnell.com/resourcelibrary/id/410
