

WILDERNESS MOTORHOMES

Terms and Conditions for Motorhome Relocation Deals

Effective September 1, 2017

1. Wilderness Motorhomes standard terms and conditions apply.
2. Relocation offers include the following extras unless otherwise stated in the published relocation offer: an interisland ferry ticket for the motorhome and the motorhome driver, 1200kms free, and standard insurance with NZ$7500 excess. Any kilometres driven in addition to the 1200kms free will be charged at NZ$0.2/per km.
3. The Hirer must pay for Road User Charges. Road User Charges apply from the first kilometre driven.
4. The Hirer may upgrade from standard insurance by purchasing an insurance package. If the VIP package is purchased, Road User Charges are waived, the excess is waived and many additional extra items are included except for the additional kilometre charge for any kilometres driven in excess of 1200kms.
5. Wilderness Motorhomes may withdraw the relocation offer at any time for operational reasons including but not limited to vehicle maintenance requirements.
6. In the event that the vehicle in the relocation offer is withdrawn, the Operator will endeavour to find an alternative vehicle that needs to be relocated. If there is no other vehicle to be relocated, the Operator will either offer a vehicle at the normal daily hire rate or refund the Hirer in full. The Operator is not liable for any costs the Hirer may incur as a result of the relocation offer (such as flight costs).
