

Privacy Policy

OneRent, Inc. ("OneRent") respects your privacy. This policy explains the privacy practices of the OneRent website and OneRent's products, software, data feeds, and services offered to you on, from or through the OneRent Website (collectively the "Service"). It describes the ways OneRent collects and uses your personal information on the Service and the rights and options available to you with respect to your information.

This policy is incorporated into the Service's Terms of Service (the "Terms of Service" or the "Terms").

California Residents – Your California Privacy Rights

Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1798.83, residents of the State of California have the right to request from companies conducting business in California such as the Service certain information regarding the company's disclosure within the immediately preceding calendar year of that California resident's personal information to third parties (and in some cases affiliates) for their direct marketing intentions. In the alternative the law provides that a company may comply, which OneRent chooses to do, by disclosing in its privacy policy that it provides consumers choice (opt-out or opt-in) concerning the sharing of personal information with third parties and affiliates for those third parties' and affiliates' direct marketing purposes, and information on how to exercise that choice. OneRent does share personally identifiable information of its users with third parties or affiliates for those third parties' direct marketing purposes.

If you are a California resident and you would like to opt-out of OneRent sharing your personally identifiable information with third parties or affiliates for their direct marketing purposes, or have any questions about OneRent's practices with regard to sharing information with third parties and affiliates regarding their direct marketing practices and your ability to exercise your choice, please contact us at the following e-mail address: hi@onerent.co or write us at the following address: 75 E. Santa Clara St., Ste 1250, San Jose, CA 95113. You must put the statement "Your California Privacy Rights" in the subject field of your e-mail or included in your correspondence if you choose to write to us at the designated mailing address. You must include your name, street address, city, state and zip code. OneRent is not responsible for notices that are not labeled, sent properly or do not have complete information. If you choose to opt-out, OneRent will not share your information with any third party or affiliates for their direct marketing purposes.

California Do Not Track Disclosure

OneRent's platform responds to web browsers' "Do Not Track" signals.

OneRent allows third parties to collect personally identifiable information about a California consumer's online activities over time and across different websites when that customer uses the OneRent platform.

Personal information that you provide

When you open an account and register with the Service, OneRent will ask you to provide certain personal details such as your name, e-mail address, user name and password, gender, date of birth, social security number and physical address. OneRent will explicitly indicate the fields for mandatory completion. If you do not enter the requisite data in these fields, you will not be able to register with the Service. When you purchase products or other services, you may be asked to provide additional personal details, depending on the nature of activity or service that you purchase or participate in.

OneRent collects social security numbers of users of the Service to run credit and background checks. The social security numbers are shared solely with credit agencies running those checks. You are not required legally to provide your social security number, however if you do not provide your social security number you will not be able to register with the Service. OneRent retains social security numbers of users in its database using industry standard security practices, and the social security numbers are retained until OneRent runs (or decides not to run) a background check.

You may upload your personal information to the Service and share the information with OneRent. The personal details that you upload, including any materials, videos, sound recordings, compositions, pictures, text, software, scripts, graphics, photos, videos, audiovisual combinations, interactive features and other materials you may view on, access through, or contribute to the Service ("Content"), may appear in search results on the Service. PLEASE USE CAUTION AND COMMON SENSE WHEN YOU UPLOAD YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION, ESPECIALLY ANY PERSONALLY IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION.

The content that you upload to the Service is not private

You have control over the Content that you wish to upload to the Service. The Content you submit to the Service will be associated with your account. However the Content that you upload may be available to the Service's personnel.

However, OneRent attempts to limit access to the Service information by third party search engine "crawlers", "robots" or "spiders". OneRent takes action to block access of these engines to personal information on the Service, beyond users' name, profile picture, and limited aggregated data about users' profile. You are solely responsible for the Content that you upload. Please consider adopting measures to protect your privacy, including but not limited to providing an anonymous user name and refraining from providing personal and identifying or identifiable details when not required.

Personal Information that OneRent collects

OneRent may collect further information when you use any of the services available on the Service. For example, OneRent may record the frequency and scope of your use of the Service, the duration of your sessions, information that you read, Content that you use or submit, the Internet protocol (IP) address and the name of the domain that serve you to access the Service, and the geographic location of the computer system that you are using to log-in to the Service.

Further information may be collected when OneRent exchanges communications with you, for example, communications related to products and/or services that you purchase through the Service, or if you submit a request to the Service's customer support.

What does OneRent do with your personally identifiable information?

OneRent may use your personally identifiable information for the following purposes :

- to enable you to use the Service and to provide you with the services on the Service;
- to improve and customize your experience on the Service;
- to develop new services on the Service;
- to provide you with support, handle complaints and collect fees;
- to send you updates, notices and announcements;
- to provide you with information related to the Service;
- to provide you with further marketing and advertising material, subject to your prior indication of consent on the Service. At any time you may opt out of the Service's mailing lists, by changing your preferences in your Service's personal account.
- to conduct surveys and questionnaires;
- to post your Content on the Service and to facilitate communication between you and the Service;
- to enforce the Terms of Service;
- to contact you as and when OneRent believes it to be necessary;
- to comply with any applicable law and assist law enforcement agencies under any applicable law, when OneRent has a good faith belief that OneRent's cooperation with the law enforcement agencies is legally mandated or meets the applicable legal standards;
- to prevent fraud, misappropriation, infringements, identity theft and other illegal activities and misuse of the Service;
- to take any action in any case of dispute, or legal proceeding of any kind between you and the Service, or between you and third parties with respect to, or in relation with the Service.

Important notice about children's privacy

The Service is not intended for use by persons under the age of 13. If you are not 13 years old or older, then you will not use the Service or any of the services therein and must not provide any of your personal details.

OneRent strongly encourages parents to monitor their children's use of the Web. OneRent will delete a child's personally identifiable information if a parent so requests by sending an e-mail to hi@onerent.co. If OneRent learns that a child under the age of 13 years has provided personally identifiable information to the Service without verifiable parental consent, OneRent will use commercially reasonable efforts to delete such information from OneRent databases.

Provisions relevant to Non U.S. users

OneRent operates the Service and processes personal information on computer servers located in the United States. OneRent may process and store personal information on computer servers located in other jurisdictions, for back-up, redundancy and other purposes that OneRent deems necessary to the operation of the Service. You provide your explicit consent to the transfer of your personal information to the United States and other jurisdictions as described above and acknowledge that the laws concerning processing and storing personal information in those jurisdictions may differ from the laws of your home country.

How does OneRent use aggregated information?

OneRent may use anonymous, statistical or aggregated information collected on the Service, including posting, disseminating, transmitting or otherwise communicating or making available such information through the Service, or to users on the Service, to the Service's suppliers, partners and any other third party, at the Service's sole discretion.

OneRent may also use anonymous, statistical or aggregated information to properly operate the Service, to improve the quality of the Service, to enhance your experience, to create new services and features, including customized services, to change or cancel existing Content or service, for marketing and advertising purposes, and for further internal, commercial, and statistical purposes.

OneRent may monetize the anonymous, statistical or aggregated information collected through OneRent Websites.

Sharing information with others

OneRent does not sell, rent or lease your personally identifiable information to third parties for any of their marketing purposes.

OneRent may share personally identifiable information with others in any of the following instances, or subject to your explicit consent:

- When you use the Service, or when you take part in any content-related activity. In these cases, the Service will share your information to the extent necessary to facilitate your use of the Service;
- If OneRent reasonably believes that you have breached the Service's Terms of Service, or abused your rights to use the Service, or performed any act or omission that OneRent reasonably believes to be violating any applicable law, rules, or regulations. OneRent may share your information in these cases, with law enforcement and other competent authorities and with any third party, as may be required to handle any result of your wrongdoing;

- If OneRent is required, or reasonably believes that it is required by law and/or law enforcement agencies to share or disclose your information;
- In any case of dispute, or legal proceeding of any kind between you and OneRent with respect to, or in relation with the Service;
- To operate the Service and OneRent's services, to send messages, and to provide search results and links;
- In any case where OneRent reasonably believes that sharing information is necessary to prevent imminent physical damage or damage to property;
- If OneRent organizes the operation of the Service within a different framework, or through another legal structure or entity, or if OneRent is acquired by, or merged into or with another entity, provided however, that those entities agree to be bound by the provisions of this policy, with respective changes taken into consideration;
- OneRent may also share personally identifiable information with companies or organizations connected, or affiliated with OneRent, such as subsidiaries, sister-companies and parent companies, and other partners, with the express provision that their use of such information must comply with this policy.

Choice

OneRent provides you with an opportunity to opt-out of having your personally identifiable information used for certain purposes, when we ask for this information.

For instance, if you no longer wish to receive our promotional communications or our service related announcements, you may opt-out of receiving them by following the instructions included in each communication or by emailing us at your personal settings page, or you may contact us at hi@onerent.co to opt-out.

Furthermore, at any time you may contact OneRent at hi@onerent.co and request that your personally identifiable information will not be shared for purposes other than for the provision of the Services.

At any time you may access your account on the Service and edit, or amend your personal information. If you find that the information on your account is not accurate, complete or updated, than you must make all necessary changes to correct it. Please keep in mind that false, incorrect, or outdated information may prevent you from registering with the Service and impair the ability to provide you with services available through the Service.

Data retention

OneRent may at all times review, retain and disclose any information as OneRent deems necessary to satisfy any applicable law, regulation, legal process or governmental request. However, by doing so OneRent does not either expressly or impliedly endorse, affirm or in any manner assume any responsibility for such communications.

Cookies

OneRent may use cookies on the Service. Cookies are packets of information sent by the Service's servers to your web browser and then sent back by the browser each time it accesses the Service's servers. The cookies may contain a variety of information, such as the content of search queries, the Service's pages you have accessed, session durations and IP addresses. The Service may use cookies for various purposes, such as to save you the need to re-enter your user name and password each time you log-in on the Service, to facilitate the use of services on the Service, to collect statistical information with respect to the use of the Service, to verify information, to customize Service to your personal preferences and for information security purposes. Some of the cookies may expire when the session ends and you exit your browser. Other cookies are saved on your computer's hard drive. If you wish to block the Service's cookies, then please use the help button in your browser and follow the necessary instructions. However, bear in mind that disabling cookies may complicate or even prevent your use of the Service, or certain features thereof.

We may, either directly or through third party companies and individuals we engage to provide services to us, also continue to track your behavior on our own Platform for purposes of our own customer support, analytics, research, product development, fraud prevention, risk assessment, regulatory compliance, investigation, as well as to enable you to use and access the Platform and pay for your activities on the Platform. We may also, either directly or through third party companies we engage to provide services to us, track your behavior on our own Platform to market and advise our services to you on the Platform and third party websites. Third parties that use cookies and other tracking technologies to deliver targeted advertisements on our Platform and/or third party websites may offer you a way to prevent such targeted advertisements by opting-out at the websites of industry groups such as Network Advertising Initiative (<http://www.networkadvertising.org/choices/>) and/or the Digital Advertising Alliance (<http://aboutads.info/choices/>). You may also be able to control advertising cookies provided by publishers, for example Google's Ad Preference Manager (<http://google.com/settings/ads/onweb/>). Please note that even if you choose to opt-out of receiving targeted advertising, you may still receive advertising on the Platform – it just will not be tailored to your interests.

Advertising campaigns

OneRent permits third party advertising companies to place advertisements on the Website and manage their display. The advertisements originate from these advertising computer systems. In order to manage the advertisements, these companies post cookies on your computer and embed web beacons in the advertisements or in the Website's pages. Web beacons are tiny graphics with unique identifiers, embedded in web pages and used to assist in collecting information about the sites usage. The collected information does not identify you, and is only intended to match the displayed advertisements to your personal interests. The use of cookies and web beacons by advertising companies is subject to their own privacy policies and not to this Privacy Policy. Such companies have no access to OneRent's Website's cookies and OneRent has no access to their cookies. Should you wish to check the privacy policies of the companies that are managing the advertising scheme on the Website, you may do so via their own websites. To receive further information about the advertising companies that OneRent works with, please contact us at: hi@onerent.co.

Information Security

OneRent implements systems, applications and procedures to secure your personal information, to minimize the risks of theft, damage, loss of information, or unauthorized access or use of information. However, these measures are unable to provide absolute assurance. Therefore, although OneRent takes great efforts to protect your privacy, OneRent cannot guarantee and you cannot reasonably expect that the Service and the Service's databases will be immune from any wrongdoings, malfunctions, unlawful interceptions or access, or other kinds of abuse and misuse, or that your private communications on or through the Service will remain private.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

OneRent may from time to time change the terms of this policy. Substantial changes will take effect 30 days after OneRent has posted an initial notification on the Service's homepage or any other relevant web pages on the Service, with respect to such changes. Other changes will take effect 7 days after their initial posting on the Service, unless OneRent amends the Terms to comply with legal requirements. In such cases the amendments will become effective immediately upon their initial posting, or as required.

You agree to be bound by any of the changes made in the terms of this policy. Continuing to use the Service will indicate your acceptance of the amended terms. If you do not agree with any of the amended terms, you must avoid any further use of the Service.
